

2007 Charleston Conference

"What Tangled Webs We Weave"

Speaker Biographies

Adams, Pat
Director of Sales

Blackwell Book Services

Pat Adams came to Blackwell 10 years ago after 10 years as Acquisitions/Serials Librarian at Union College in Schenectady NY. She was formerly Northeast Regional Sales Manager and, more recently, Eastern District Sales Manager for Blackwell. Pat lives on a farm in rural upstate NY.

Akins, Karen

Head, Collection Development and Electronic Resources, James G. Gee Library
Texas A&M University-Commerce

Karen Akins is the Head of Collection Development & Electronic Resources at Texas A&M University-Commerce and a former Acquisitions Librarian. While she has worked in collection development for over ten years, this is her first visit to the Charleston conference. Special interests include ERMS systems, federated searching and exploring methods where collection assessment can occur across print and electronic formats. She focuses on the tools needed so the library's collection will meet information needs while being as patron-friendly as possible.

Albanese, Andrew

Editor

Library Journal Academic Newswire

Andrew Richard Albanese is editor, Library Journal Academic Newswire where he covers academic libraries, publishing and information technology issues. His freelance writing work has appeared in numerous publications including Salon.com, Lingua Franca and the Wall Street Journal. He is also a former editor of American history and popular culture books at Oxford University Press. He joined Library Journal in 1999.

Alexander, Kathey

Publishing Consultant

Alvin, Glenda

Asst. Director for Collection Management
Brown-Daniel Library, Tennessee State Univ.

Anderson, Kim

Director of Special and Consortia Sales

Blackwell Book Services

Kim Anderson joined Blackwell in 1990 following 14 years in the academic bookselling industry. He was the Mountain Plains Regional Manager for Midwest Library Service, and Marketing/Customer Service Manager for IHS Professional Data Services. He holds a Bachelor's Degree in English from the University of Colorado.

Anderson, Rick

Associate Director for Scholarly Resources and Collections
University of Utah

Rick Anderson is Associate Director for Scholarly Resources and Collections at the University of Utah's Marriott Library. He earned his B.S. and M.L.I.S. degrees at Brigham Young University, and has worked previously as a bibliographer for YBP, Inc., as Head Acquisitions Librarian for the University of North Carolina, Greensboro and as Director of Resource Acquisition at the University of Nevada, Reno. He serves on the editorial boards of ACQNET, Serials and Library Collections, Acquisitions and Technical Services and edits the Sound Recording Reviews column for Notes (the quarterly journal of the Music Library Association). He writes a regular op-ed column for Against the Grain entitled "In My

2007 Charleston Conference – Speaker Biographies

Humble (But Correct) Opinion.", and his book, Buying and Contracting for Resources and Services: A How-to-Do-It Manual for Librarians, was published in 2004 by Neal-Schuman. In 2005, Rick was identified by Library Journal as a "Mover & Shaker" - one of the "50 people shaping the future of libraries."

Armstrong, Kim

Assistant Director

Center for Library Initiatives, CIC

Kim Armstrong is Assistant Director, Center for Library Initiatives, at the Committee on Institutional Cooperation (CIC). She has also held positions at the University of Illinois at Springfield, the Triangle Research Libraries Network, and Illinois State University. She holds an MS in Library Science from the University of Illinois at Urbana-Champaign and an MM from Appalachian State University. Kim's work at the CIC includes project management for the Google Digitization Partnership and licensing electronic resources.

Arthur, Michael A.

Head of Acquisitions & Collection Services

University of Central Florida

Michael A. Arthur is Head of Acquisitions & Collection Services at the University of Central Florida Libraries. Michael has been working in academic libraries since 1988. He is a member of the North American Serials Interest Group, the American Society for Public Administration, and Pi Alpha Alpha the National Honor Society for Public Affairs and Administration. Michael received an M.L.S from Indiana University, and an M.P.A from Old Dominion University

Askuvich, Jay

General Sales Manager

Midwest Library Service

Following his honorable discharge from the United States Air Force in 1970, Jay Askuvich has spent his entire working career with Midwest Library Service. He became the company's first full time sales person in 1972. Jay has been the General Sales Manager since 1980. He is active in ALA, currently serving on the board of the Exhibits Round Table. Jay is a native of St. Louis, has lived in Los Angeles since 1975, and currently resides there with his wife Carol, three daughters, two sons-in-law, a 10-month-old granddaughter, and an 8-month-old grandson.

Barnes, John

Senior VP, Strategic Business Development

Gale

John Barnes is senior vice president, strategy & business development for Gale, a Cengage Learning company. John has leadership responsibility for all business development and corporate strategy activities at Gale, including acquisitions and alliances, strategic planning and new market development. John is a 22-year veteran of the publishing industry. He joined Gale in 1998 to establish and lead its product management team during the critical merging of the electronic publishing programs of Information Access Company, Gale Research and Primary Source Media. Prior to joining Gale, John held senior product, business and general management positions at Online Computer Library Center (OCLC) and ProQuest.

Barricella, Lisa

Acquisitions Librarian

East Carolina University

Lisa Barricella is Acquisitions Librarian at Joyner Library, East Carolina University and oversees monographs purchasing as well as the preservation/conservation unit. She joined East Carolina University after completing a two-year fellowship at NC State University. She holds a BA from Shippensburg University of Pennsylvania and an MLIS from the University of Pittsburgh.

2007 Charleston Conference – Speaker Biographies

Barton, Hope
Director, Central Technical Services
University of Iowa Libraries

Hope Barton is Director of Central Technical Services at the University of Iowa Libraries. She began her career at the Temple University Health Sciences Library in 1974 and moved to the University of Iowa in 1985, where she joined the staff of the Hardin Library for the Health Sciences. Her focus was always collection management technical services, although she also did considerable work in reference and library instruction. Hope earned her undergraduate degree at Muhlenberg College in Allentown, PA and her library degree at Rutgers University.

Basch, N. Bernard "Buzzie"
President
Basch Subscriptions

Beale, Simon
Senior Vice President, Global Sales
ProQuest

Simon Beale was named ProQuest's Senior Vice President, Global Sales, in January 2006. He has responsibility for global sales of all published and distributed electronic, print and microform products to academic, public, government and corporate libraries.

Beale joined ProQuest in June 2002 as Vice President of International Sales and Marketing. His responsibilities included managing ProQuest revenues within the operating plan for global markets, outside of the US and Canada. In 2004, he was also given responsibility for driving international business development initiatives. Beale's leadership and deep knowledge of the market were instrumental in building consistent annual double-digit international growth.

Before joining ProQuest, Beale was Executive Director of Sales at Elsevier Health Sciences, EMEA division, Director of Sales at Harcourt Publishers Europe, Director of Sales at Prentice Hall Europe, and International Sales and Marketing Manager at Pitman/FT Publishing, Pearson. He also held various sales and marketing positions in Addison-Wesley and Simon and Schuster.

Beale holds a bachelor's degree from Loughborough University, UK, completed his MA coursework at SUNY Brockport, and has been an active member of the UK Publishers Association Academic & Professional Division Board. Mr. Beale, his wife and their three children live in the Ann Arbor, Michigan area.

Beckett, Chris
Vice President, Sales & Marketing
Atypon Systems, Inc.

Chris Beckett has over 25 years of senior executive experience in product development and sales and marketing. He was a Co-Founder of Scholarly Information Strategies, a consultancy that specialized in assisting publishers, libraries and intermediaries to develop and deliver electronic products and services. He has also worked for Blackwell Information Services, CatchWord, and Ingenta; is a regular speaker at industry conferences; and a qualified librarian.

Beebe, Linda
Senior Director, PsycINFO
American Psychological Association

Linda Beebe is the Senior Director of PsycINFO for the American Psychological Association. In that capacity, she directs the development and production of electronic databases. APA currently offers five databases: two are bibliographic (PsycINFO for peer-reviewed scholarly books and journals and PsycEXTRA for gray literature), and three are full text (PsycARTICLES, PsycBOOKS, and PsycCRITIQUES). She previously was President of Parachute Publishing, a consulting firm, and earlier Associate Executive Director for Communications for the National Association of Social Workers.

2007 Charleston Conference – Speaker Biographies

In 2007, she is serving on the boards of CrossRef and NFAIS; she is Treasurer of CrossRef and the Past President of NFAIS.

Belkhir, Lotfi
Founder and CEO
Kirtas Technologies

Lotfi Belkhir is the founder and CEO of Kirtas Technologies. Today Kirtas has become the world recognized leader in book digitization, and its products have been highlighted in mainstream TV and print media around the world, including the USA, Japan, France, England and many other countries. Prior to starting Kirtas, Dr. Belkhir worked at Xerox, where he held a variety of management positions in R&D, product development, new business incubation, and strategy and planning. He has been a featured speaker on Innovation and Digitization issues at various venues, including the American Library Association, the Center of Innovation and Management Studies, McMaster University, University of Indiana at Bloomington, Xerox Research Center of Canada, Conference on Management of Information, Computers in Libraries Meeting, etc.. Dr. Belkhir holds a PhD in Physics and a Master's in Management of Technology, and is fluent in English, French and Arabic.

Bennet, Richard
Director Licensing – Americas
Springer

Bennett, Fiona
Head, Library Sales & Business Development
Oxford Journals/Oxford University Press

Fiona Bennett began her career in publishing in 1996, as a Rights Assistant at Elsevier and then joined Oxford University Press in 1998 as Journals Copyright Manager. Over the last 9 years the role and responsibilities have grown and Fiona was recently promoted to the new post of Head, Library Sales and Business Development. Her current remit includes responsibility for all library and rights sales for the Oxford Journals worldwide. Fiona regularly speaks at publishing events and represents Oxford Journals on the ALPSP and Copyright Committees, and is also a member of the Project Muse Advisory Board and CLOCKSS Steering Group.

Bernhardt, Beth Electronic Journals and Document Delivery Librarian
UNC Greensboro

Beth Bernhardt is the Electronic Journals / Document Delivery Librarian at the University of North Carolina at Greensboro. She has her graduate degree in Library Science from the University of South Carolina. She is responsible for providing electronic journal access to all faculty, staff and students at the University. Beth has nineteen years of experience working in academic libraries. She is a trainer for Solinet and NC LIVE in the subject field of electronic resources. Beth is the current program chair for the Charleston Conference.

Bilder, Geoffrey
Director of Strategic Initiatives
CrossRef

Geoffrey Bilder is Director of Strategic Initiatives at CrossRef. He co-founded Brown University's Scholarly Technology Group in 1993, providing the Brown academic community with advanced technology consulting in support of their research, teaching and scholarly communication. He was subsequently head of IT R&D at Monitor Group, a global management consulting firm based in Cambridge, Massachusetts. From 2002 to 2005, Geoffrey was Chief Technology Officer of scholarly publishing firm Ingenta, and just prior to joining CrossRef, he was a Publishing Technology Consultant at Scholarly Information Strategies, where he consulted extensively with publishers and librarians on emerging social software technologies and how they may affect scholarly and professional researchers.

2007 Charleston Conference – Speaker Biographies

Blake, Catherine
Assistant Professor
University of North Carolina at Chapel Hill

Blake, Julie
Acquisitions Coordinator
Milton S. Eisenhower Library, Johns Hopkins University

Julie Blake holds a Bachelor's Degree in Sociology from Bowling Green State University, a Master's Degree in Library Science from Indiana University, and a Master's Degree in Business Administration from St. Cloud State University (MN). She worked for eight years in North Carolina as a Public Services Librarian, Reference Librarian, and college Library Director, then decided she'd had enough of doing everything and wanted to focus more on behind the scenes duties and pass off the "being-in-charge" hat and headaches. She then moved to Minnesota and became a Collection Management/Acquisitions Librarian, and is now at Johns (with an "s" ;) Hopkins University as Acquisitions Coordinator.

Bock, Julia
Acquisitions Librarian/ Assistant Professor
Long Island University

Julia completed her studies with her dual master's degrees in History and Library Science, and with a Ph.D. in History at Eotvos Lorand University in Budapest. Her dissertation dealt with the Minority Problem in the Austro-Hungarian Monarchy. She worked as a research librarian at the Library of Parliament in Budapest. After immigrating to the United States, she received an MLS degree from Columbia University's School of Library service. She held positions, at NYU's Law Library, at the Bakhmeteff Archive at Columbia University; she became the Head Librarian of the Leo Baeck Institute library, and the Museum of Jewish Heritage library. She joined Long Island University library at Brooklyn in 2005 as an Acquisition Librarian. She is publishing on historical and library related projects.

Boissy, Robert
Manager, Subscription Agent Relations
Springer

Bob has worked as Manager of Subscription Agent Relations for Springer since March 2005. The job involves setting up global service level agreements between Springer and the major subscription agents to ensure that a high level of cooperation exists in all areas, but especially in the demanding area of online fulfillment. Service agreements have also been set up to facilitate sales of e-Book Packages through subscription agents. Prior to his current position, Bob worked as licensing manager for Springer and Kluwer in the North American academic sector for two years and for a subscription agency for fifteen years. Professional interests include automated data exchange in the serials community, developments in licensing and business models, and electronic archiving. Bob has an MLS from SUNY Albany and a Certificate of Advanced Study from the Syracuse University School of Information Studies.

Borchert, Carol Ann
Coordinator for Serials
University of South Florida

Carol Ann Borchert has been the Coordinator for Serials at the University of South Florida (USF) since 2004. Previously, she was in the Reference and Government Documents departments at USF, and in the Cataloging, Serials, Reference, and Government Documents departments at Furman University's James B. Duke Library. After resolving the identity crisis of whether she was a public or technical services librarian, she is back on the technical services side of the house. (She still hangs out with public service librarians, though.) She holds an MLS from the University of Kentucky, an M.A. in Spanish from USF, and a BBA in Finance from the College of William and Mary.

2007 Charleston Conference – Speaker Biographies

Borghuis, Marthyn

Senior Manager ScienceDirect and Scopus Usage Research
Elsevier

Marthyn Borghuis is Senior Manager Usage Research for ScienceDirect® and Scopus®, both products of Elsevier. He holds an MA in Social Sciences and a post-doc in Library & Information Sciences at the University of Amsterdam. Before joining Elsevier in 1989 he held the position of Faculty Librarian at Groningen State University, the Netherlands. At Elsevier he joined the TULIP project from 1993-1996, which was a very early pilot study into e-journal platforms. Since 1998 he is a member of ScienceDirect® and Scopus® product development teams. He is a co-founding member of the COUNTER Executive Committee since its start in 2002.

Botero, Cecilia

Assistant Director for Resource Management, Health Sciences Center Library University of Florida

Bowdoin, Jessica

Collection Development Librarian
George Mason University

Since 2005, she has been a Collection Development Librarian at George Mason University, working with Approval Plans and electronic resources. Prior to her current position, she was Distance Education Coordinator at East Carolina University, and from 2000-2003, she was a reference librarian at the College of William and Mary. Since 2000, she has taught sections of "Introduction to Library Research" at William and Mary and "Introduction to Reference Service" at East Carolina University. She currently teaches the "Basic Research and Fact-checking" course for George Washington University's Master's in Publishing. Her education includes a B.A. in Classical Studies from William and Mary and an M.S. in Library and Information Science from the University of Illinois at Urbana-Champaign.

Brennan, Patricia

Product Development Manager
Thomson Scientific

Patricia Brennan is a product development manager at Thomson Scientific with responsibility for usage reporting and other metrics related projects. Previously she has held positions at Harvard University Library and the Association of Research Libraries. She has written and presented on a variety of topics including preservation, technology in libraries, copyright and licensing, and communications and holds degrees from the University of Maryland and The Catholic University of America.

Brenneise, Harvey

Lead, Resource Development Team University of La Verne

I've done many kinds of library work and enjoyed all of it. This includes a special library (developing a digital public health library in Michigan), public (reference at Seattle Public), and academic (reference, collection development, instruction and systems). I lived in Michigan many years, now I've returned to my native California, where I enjoy a year-round garden, including orchids (outside and in).

Brown, Laura

Former President
Oxford University Press

2007 Charleston Conference – Speaker Biographies

Brown, Linda
Collections Coordinator
Bowling Green State University

I have been the collection development librarian at Bowling Green State University in Ohio since 1993. Prior to that I was head of reference at the Hamilton College Library in Clinton, New York. I have a continuing interest in helping librarians to cooperate in collection development to shape library collections and participate in many OhioLINK collection development discussions and cooperative initiatives. When not at the library, I enjoy knitting, gardening, and reading, of course.

Brucoli, Matthew J.
Jefferies Distinguished Professor Emeritus, Department of English
University of South Carolina

Matthew J. Brucoli has spent half a century in mortal combat with library administrators. He is the biographer of F. Scott Fitzgerald, John O'Hara, and James Gould Cozzens. He and his wife, Arlyn, have given their book collections to the University of South Carolina. Dr. Brucoli is president of Brucoli Clark Layman, publisher of the Dictionary of Literary Biography and other reference books.

Brunning, Dennis
Electronic Resources Manager
Arizona State University

Buckley, Nancy
Managing Director
Burgundy Information Services

Nancy is the Managing Director of Burgundy Information Services, a new company specializing in sales consultancy and negotiation services for the online publishing industry. Nancy is also the founder and chair of UKSG's new project 'Transfer' which aims to create a code of practice for the transfer of journal titles between publishers. In addition, she is Treasurer of UKSG (United Kingdom Serials Group).

Prior to Burgundy, Nancy worked for publisher Blackwell Publishing Ltd for 7 years as the International Sales Director, managing a global team of 21 staff based in Oxford, Berlin, Boston, Melbourne, Milan, Tokyo and Beijing. She was responsible for the sale of all of Blackwell's electronic journals to institutions and consortia globally.

Prior to starting her career Nancy qualified as a librarian at the University of Central England after completing a degree in English Literature at the University of Sunderland. Outside of work Nancy enjoys walking, cycling, vegetable gardening and visiting her local village pub The Green Man.

Bucknall, Tim
Assistant Director, Jackson Library
UNC Greensboro

Tim Bucknall has an MLS and MA from the University of North Carolina. He is currently Assistant Director for Information Technologies and Electronic Resources at the University of North Carolina at Greensboro. Tim is one of the inventors of Journal Finder, the first OpenURL link resolver to go into production in the U.S., and he serves on the Librarians Council of NC LIVE, North Carolina's state-wide database cooperative. Tim is also the founder and convener of the Carolina Consortium, an academic buyers group that includes over 125 colleges, universities, and community colleges in North and South Carolina.

2007 Charleston Conference – Speaker Biographies

Burke, Jane
Vice President and General Manager
Serials Solutions

Jane Burke is Vice President and General Manager of Serials Solutions, a Seattle-based business unit of ProQuest. Jane was appointed to this position in June, 2005. Prior to joining ProQuest, Jane co-founded and served as President/CEO of Endeavor Information Systems. In addition to working as a librarian at Cook Memorial Library in Libertyville, Illinois early in her career, Jane served as President of NOTIS Systems.

Jane earned masters degrees in Library Science from Dominican University (formerly Rosary College) and in Management from the Kellogg School of Northwestern University. Always an involved member of the library community, she now serves on the Board of Governors for the Northwestern University Library and on the Board of Directors for the Dominican University Graduate School of Library and Information Science. Among her many awards, Jane was inducted into the Chicago Area Entrepreneurship Hall of Fame.

Burke, Rick
Executive Director
Statewide California Electronic Library Consortium (SCELC)

Rick Burke, MLS, is the Executive Director of SCELC, the Statewide California Electronic Library Consortium. SCELC is a consortium of 93+ private academic and nonprofit research institutions in California. He has presented at numerous conferences, including the Charleston Conference, the American Library Association, the Society of Scholarly Publishing, the California Association of Research Libraries, and IFLA, on topics such as collaborative collection development in a consortium, negotiation, consortial electronic resource management, and managing consortial e-journal packages.

Burns, Ron
Director, Software Product Management
EBSCO Publishing

Ron Burns is Director of Software Product Management for EBSCO Publishing. He leads the user interface design and product management efforts for the EBSCOhost search platform which includes over 15 user interfaces and an extensive array of linking and integration technologies used to access EBSCO's 250 plus research databases. Ron is a veteran in the software industry and has been involved with several web content management and search technology companies throughout his career.

Bush, Renee
Head, Collection Management Services Health Science Library
University at Buffalo

Butterworth, Don
Technical Service Librarian
Asbury Theological Seminary

After completing his MLS from the Univ. of South Florida, Don Butterworth became the cataloger at Asbury Theological Seminary. He is still there 26 years later and now heads the library Tech. Services Dept. Over the years he worked with VTLS assisting them in the design of their very first Acquisitions module, has worked with R.R. Bowker, served 6 years as the Horizon Users Group Acquisitions module representative, and spent a 6 week sabbatical working for Ameritech Library Services helping to design the Horizon 8.0 Acquisitions module. Currently he works with Jim Taylor as a consultant on the JTacq product. In the early hours of the morning, he loves to look out from his back deck and watch the mist from the Kentucky River rise up between the rolling bluegrass covered hills.

2007 Charleston Conference – Speaker Biographies

Campbell, Jeff
Systems Librarian
UNC Chapel Hill

Carpenter, Todd
Managing Director
NISO - National Information Standards Organization

Todd Carpenter is currently Managing Director of the National Information Standards Organization, which fosters the development and maintenance of standards that facilitate the creation, persistent management, and effective interchange of information. Todd is focused on improving the efficiency of the standards development process, extending the scope and participation of the community, and enhancing educational and outreach programs. Prior to joining NISO, Todd had been Director of Business Development with BioOne. He has also held management positions at The Johns Hopkins University Press, the Energy Intelligence Group, a news service covering the oil industry, and The Haworth Press. Todd is a graduate of Syracuse University and holds a masters degree from The Johns Hopkins University.

Carter, Janet D.
Collection Coordinator
UCLA Louise M. Darling Biomedical Library

Janet is the Collection Coordinator for the UCLA Louise M. Darling Biomedical Library. The library has a team approach for collection development, outreach, and instruction. She is one of the liaisons to the School of Medicine and to the Life Sciences Division (more specifically she is responsible for outreach to the Physiological Science and the Microbiology, Immunology & Molecular Genetics departments).

Carter, Kathy
Coordinator, Bibliographic Services
University of Alberta

I've worked in technical services at the University of Alberta for over 30 years, and have usually been able to indulge my preference for serials work. Currently I'm also working with the Lois Hole Campus Alberta Digital Library to support its technical services needs.

Chan, Gayle
Collection Development Librarian
University of Hong Kong Libraries

I obtained an undergraduate degree in Music, and a master's degree in Library and Information Science from the University of British Columbia, Canada. My first professional librarian job began at the University of Hong Kong Libraries and I have worked there ever since. I have been their Music Librarian, Serials Librarian, and since the beginning of 2002, the Collection Development Librarian. My major responsibilities currently include the oversight of the library materials budget, leading the Collection Development Team in collection building and management activities, working with several library consortia to acquire electronic databases and e-books, managing the site-licensing for all of our electronic-resources. On top of being Head of Collection Development, I have recently taken up the role of faculty liaison for the Faculty of Business and Economics for the time being. I hope to have a wonderful time again at Charleston this year.

Chesler, Adam
Assistant Director
American Chemical Society

Adam Chesler is the Assistant Director, Library Relations and Customer Service for the Publications Division of the American Chemical Society. He has been with ACS since 2004, and has worked closely with Sales, Marketing, and Operations staff over the past two years to help develop the new ACS Value-Based pricing model, and for the past several months has been meeting with dozens of customers and sales agents to introduce and implement it. Prior to joining ACS, Adam worked for Kluwer Academic Publishers, holding various position in sales and marketing and helping develop and introduce Kluwer Online, Kluwer's digital journal platform.

2007 Charleston Conference – Speaker Biographies

Christenberry, Faye
English Studies Librarian
University of Washington

Faye Christenberry is the English Studies Librarian and Humanities Fund Manager at the University of Washington Libraries in Seattle. Faye has been responsible for collection development in various humanities disciplines since taking on her first professional job at Berea College in 1992. Faye is interested in training and mentoring new librarians in collection management and is in the process of implementing a new training program at the UW Libraries. In addition to her work as a librarian, Faye is a field bibliographer for the Modern Language Association and a long-standing member of the American Association of Australian Literary Studies. This is Faye's first attendance at the Charleston Conference.

Christensen, Karen
CEO and Founder
Berkshire Publishing Group

Karen Christensen is publisher, entrepreneur, and author specializing in global issues who began her career in London and cofounded Berkshire Publishing Group in 1998. She is editor/publisher of Berkshire's GuanxiOnline (www.guanxionline.com), a guide to navigating today's China, and is a member of the National Committee on U.S.-China Relations www.ncuscr.org. Karen writes and speaks on community and social media and is an occasional journalist as well as the author of a number of popular environmental books that have been translated into French, German, Japanese, Korean, Thai, and traditional and simplified Chinese. She blogs about publishing and social media at www.berkshirepublishing.com/blog and about China at www.guanxiblogs.com/karenchristensen.

Clarke, Helen
Head, Collections Services
University of Calgary Library

Clarke, Jennifer
Team Leader, Technical Services
Bucknell University

Jennifer Clarke is the Team Leader, Technical Services at Bucknell University. Employed by the Bertrand Library for 18+ years, she recently added the coordination of electronic products to her list of responsibilities. Jen also supervises Interlibrary Loan, Cataloging, Acquisitions, E-Reserves, and Serials.

Clay, David
Deputy Head of Academic Liaison and Finance
University of Liverpool Library

David Clay is Deputy Head of Academic Liaison Finance at the University of Liverpool Library, where he works on research support, information literacy issues and e-learning issues. His recent work on overseeing the library's work in support of preparation for the Research Assessment Exercise and his ongoing work with vendors developing bibliographic tools that meet users needs have led him to focus on bibliometrics and how librarians can guide researchers and managers in their analysis and use.

2007 Charleston Conference – Speaker Biographies

Clayborne, Jon

Sr. Product Sales Manager, A&G Americas, Science & Technology Books NA Elsevier

I've made my living from information since 1972 when I began work as a reference librarian at Rutgers' Alexander Library. I held librarian positions right through an eight-year stint at Jersey City State University. I crossed over to publishing in 1985 when I began work as a library relations coordinator at H.W. Wilson. Since 1997 I've been selling books at Elsevier primarily through wholesalers and other third party vendors. From a very small operation, the book group grew ten-fold four years and one major acquisition later. Up until this year I was an account manager in our library sales unit. The dramatic growth and interest in books online resulted in my current position as Sr. Product Sales Manager in North America.

Clement, Susanne

Head of Collection Development University of Kansas Libraries

After working nearly eighth years as a corporate solo librarian, I joined the University of Kansas Libraries as a social sciences librarian in the spring of 2003 and in 2004 was appointed head of collection development. I am also the liaison to the Political Science and the Communication Studies departments. Assessment of collection use, print as well as electronic, is occupying increasing amount of my time as is finding ways to make the data accessible to other librarians

Cohen, Laura B.

Web Support Librarian University at Albany, SUNY

Laura B. Cohen is Web Support Librarian at the University at Albany, SUNY. She has published and spoken extensively on issues relating to library technology. Most recently, she has turned her attention to Library 2.0. She is editing the first ALA-produced hybrid title, the book/wiki "Library 2.0 Initiatives in Academic Libraries." She maintains the blog Library 2.0: An Academic's Perspective. Her "Librarian's 2.0 Manifesto" was published in the August issue of American Libraries, and has been translated into several languages in blogs around the world. Laura is a member of the editorial board of the LITA journal Information Technology and Libraries.

Cohn, Kevin

Product Director Atypon Systems, Inc.

Mr. Cohn joined Atypon in 2006 and directs the definition of new capabilities for Atypon's publishing platform. Mr. Cohn graduated from Carnegie Mellon University with a degree in Statistics. He previously served as the Coordinator of Product Development for Mary Ann Liebert, Inc., publishers, where he focused on developing their electronic journals program.

Colander, David

CAJ Distinguished Professor of Economics Middlebury College

David Colander has been the Christian A. Johnson Distinguished Professor of Economics at Middlebury College, Middlebury, Vermont since 1982. He has authored, co-authored, or edited over 35 books and 100 articles on a wide range of topics. He is chair of the American Economic Association's Electronic Publishing Committee and a member of its Ad Hoc Committee on Journals. He is a former president of both the Eastern Economics Association and the History of Economic Thought Society.

Colleran, Edward

Senior Director, Rightsholder Relations Copyright Clearance Center

Ed Colleran serves as the Senior Director of Rightsholder Relations at Copyright Clearance Center

2007 Charleston Conference – Speaker Biographies

(CCC), the world's premier provider of copyright licensing and compliance solutions. He oversees strategic initiatives focused on CCC's publisher constituency and manages the development of content licensing solutions and new revenue-generating initiatives for CCC's participating publishers. Ed also provides the vision for the advancement of CCC's digital rights management services and is a key contributor on other long-term strategic issues facing the information industry.

An industry veteran, Ed is a member of the Society of Scholarly Publishers (SSP) board and was also a two-term member of the board of the Software and Information Industry Association (SIIA). He is a featured speaker and editorial contributor on issues such as navigating copyright requirements and the challenges and opportunities of managing content in a digital environment. A regular speaker at industry events, Ed has recently presented at the annual conferences of ALA, Association of University Presses (AAUP) and SIIA as well as InfoToday's eContent conference.

A nine-year veteran at CCC, Ed has nearly 25 years' experience in the communications and information industries. Before joining CCC, he served as vice president and managing director of Larry Miller Productions (now iXL, Inc.), a marketing communications firm.

Connaway, Lynn Silipigni

Research Scientist

OCLC Online Computer Library Center, Inc.

Lynn Silipigni Connaway, Ph.D., is a Senior Research Scientist, Programs and Research, OCLC Online Computer Library Center, Inc. Her current research projects include studying how people look for and get their information and data mining to facilitate library decision making. She is the co-author of the 4th ed. of Basic Research Methods for Librarians, with Ronald Powell. She has received several grants to fund her research, including two IMLS grants to study virtual reference services and information-seeking behaviors. Lynn was the Director of the Library and Information Services Program at the University of Denver and on the faculty of the School of Library and Information Science at the University of Missouri, Columbia. She lives in Colorado and enjoys skiing, hiking, and cooking.

Covert-Vail, Lucinda

Director of Public Services

New York University Libraries

Lucinda Covert-Vail is Director of Public Services for the NYU Libraries and oversees program planning, implementation, and assessment; development of access, instructional, and reference services; and renovation and space planning.

Prior to joining the faculty at NYU she held positions at San Francisco State University, the California Energy Commission and the USC/NASA Industrial Application Center. She was an ALA Library/Book Fellow in Madrid, Spain and served as a visiting professor at the Universidad Complutense de Madrid and the Fundacion German Sanchez Ruiperez. Covert-Vail holds an AB in English from UCLA, an MS in Library Science from USC and an MS in Management from NYU.

Cox, John

Managing Director

John Cox Associates, Ltd.

John Cox read law at Oxford University and then qualified as a lawyer. But he has spent over thirty-five years in publishing, with The Open University, Butterworths and Scholastic. He joined Blackwell in 1990 as head of the subscription agency and then as Managing Director. He was Managing Director of Carfax, a UK journal publisher, from 1994. He left Carfax when it became part of Taylor & Francis in November 1998 to set up his own consultancy, John Cox Associates, which specializes in scholarly and research publishing. He is a frequent speaker and writer on scholarly publishing issues.

2007 Charleston Conference – Speaker Biographies

Cox, Richard
Digital Technology Consultant
UNC Greensboro

Richard is the head of the 4-member UL web development team, and participates in ASP.NET/SQL Server development and standards-based web design as well as outreach to and training for various departments across the UNCG campus. He currently chairs the Library's Web development group, is head of the campus Web development and outreach teams, and sits on the campus Web Oversight Committee and Assistive Technology Advisory Board. Richard recently authored a chapter in the ACRL book "Library 2.0 Initiatives in Academic Libraries", due out this November. In his spare time Richard collects TOHO Daikaju memorabilia. You're probably a librarian, look it up.

Crosetto, Alice
Coordinator of Collection Development/Acquisitions Librarian
University of Toledo

Alice has spent over thirty years as an educator and librarian. She has taught at both the high school and university level and has spent many years as a librarian in college and school libraries in the Cleveland and Youngstown, Ohio, areas. As the current Coordinator for Collection Development and Acquisitions Librarian for the University Libraries, she oversees monographs and media purchases, determines the disposition of gift items, and coordinates the Library liaison program and the participation of selectors in Collection Development as well as providing Collection Development for Mathematics, Religious Studies and The Middle East/Islamic Studies program. Alice's current research interests are:

- ethnic book awards – everybody loves a prize!
- the how & why juvenile literature is used on the academic level – not just for kids anymore!

Czech, Isabel
Director of Publisher Relations
Thomson Scientific

Isabel Czech has spent her entire professional career at ISI, now Thomson Scientific, in Philadelphia. As Director of Publisher Relations, she is responsible for all communication between Thomson Scientific and more than 2000 publishers whose journals, books, and proceedings are included in their products, including the Web of Science and the Journal Citation Reports. She is a frequent speaker at industry conferences, such as the annual meetings of the Society for Scholarly Publishing, the Council of Science Editors, and CESSE. Isabel has a BA degree from St. John's College in Annapolis, Maryland and a Master of Liberal Arts from Temple University in Philadelphia.

D'Amour, Heather
Head, Technical Services and Digital Access
University of Calgary

Heather was the Monograph, Gifts and Collections Budget Librarian for the past seven years at the University of Calgary. She is currently embarking on new challenges as the Head, Technical Services and Digital Access.

Dapra, Darcy
Strategic Partner Manager
Google

Darcy Dapra joined Google, Inc. as a Strategic Partner Manager for Google Scholar and News Archive Search in November of 2006. Prior to Google, Darcy was the Subsidiary Rights Manager for the Journals and Digital Publishing Division at the University of California Press, where she led the Division's content licensing and syndication, copyright, and permissions programs. Darcy holds an undergraduate degree in English literature from the University of Nevada, Reno, and a graduate degree in art history from the University of California, Davis, and was Fulbright Scholar in Ham'chang, South

2007 Charleston Conference – Speaker Biographies

Korea. In addition to devouring the daily newspaper cover-to-cover, she enjoys experimenting in the kitchen and baking massive cakes.

Davidson, Merrie
Psychology, Sociology & Linguistics Librarian
University of Florida Libraries

Merrie Davidson has her dream job as the library liaison to 3 of her favorite social science departments at the University of Florida. In addition to guiding individual students and faculty members through the maze of resources that make research exciting and challenging, she also assists them online with her wiki, Psych, Soc, Ling & CSD @ the Library (<http://psychsocling.editme.com/>). At other time, she plays with the best beagle in the world, Audrey, at the dog park while knitting and spinning.

Davis, Anne
Collection Development Coordinator & Anthropology Librarian
University of Washington

Anne Davis is the Collection Development Coordinator for the Odegaard Undergraduate Library at the University of Washington, as well as the Anthropology Librarian for the UW system. Her favorite genres to collect are Graphic Novels and Science Fiction.

Davis, Hilary M.
Collection Manager for Physical Sciences, Engineering and Data Analysis
North Carolina State University Libraries

Hilary Davis is Collection Manager for Physical Sciences, Engineering and Data Analysis. She holds an MLS from University of Missouri-Columbia and an MS in Biology (Plant Systematics) from University of Missouri-St. Louis.

Davis, Kathy
Director of Libraries
University of Wisconsin, Steven Point

Dr. Davis has extensive experience with library administration, collection development, instructional media and design and international consulting. She holds an MLS, an MS in Ed Technology and an EdD in curriculum and supervision from Texas A and M University, Commerce, Texas.

Day, Annette P.
Associate Head of Collection Management
North Carolina State University Libraries

Annette Day is Associate Head of Collection Management at NCSU Libraries. Originally from the UK she earned her MLS from Leeds Metropolitan University and holds a BS in Computer Science and Mathematics from Leeds University. She moved to the USA six years ago and held positions at the University of Pennsylvania before moving to NC State in June of this year.

DeFelice, Barbara
Director, Digital Resources Program
Dartmouth College

Barbara DeFelice has been the Director of the Digital Resources Program at Dartmouth College since July 2006. Previously, she was the Head of the Kresge Physical Sciences Library and Cook Mathematics Collection at Dartmouth College. Barbara focuses on management, coordination, evaluation, and marketing for digital resources, and scholarly communication issues.

2007 Charleston Conference – Speaker Biographies

Dell, Marin

Reference Librarian

Florida State Univ. Law Library

Marin Dell, JD MLIS is currently a Reference Librarian at Florida State University Law Library. Her duties include supervision of the Circulation Department, which include managing 2 full time staff members and approximately 10 student workers. She also supervises law students in the FSU research assistant program, including 2 long-term project RAs assigned only to Ms. Dell and various other rotating RAs whose projects are assigned to Ms. Dell. In her former position as Research/Electronic Services Librarian at Jones School of Law, she supervised the Circulation Department, and was responsible for 2 full time staff members, 6-10 law student workers and 3-6 undergraduate student workers. Ms. Dell received her JD from California Western School of Law in San Diego, CA and is a member of the California Bar. She has Masters and Specialist degrees from the Florida State University College of Information and is currently in the Management track of the Florida State University College of Business' Master of Science in Management Information Systems program.

DeVoe, Kristen

Electronic Resources Librarian

College of Charleston

Kristen DeVoe is the Electronic Resources librarian at the College of Charleston, the editor of The Charleston Report, and column editor of "Innovations Affecting Us" in Against the Grain. This is her fourth year attending the Charleston Conference and her second year presenting or moderating. Kristen has a Bachelors in History from the College of Charleston and an MLIS from the University of South Carolina.

In her spare time Kristen volunteers with Hospice of Charleston and Big Brothers Big Sisters of the Carolina Youth Development Center.

Dew, Stephen

Collections & Scholarly Resources Coordinator

UNC Greensboro

Dew is responsible for coordinating efforts to develop, manage, and preserve the wide variety of library collections at UNCG, and he is the Libraries' point-person for issues related to scholarly communication. In July 2007, Dew attended the ARL/ACRL Institute on Scholarly Communication, and he is currently the Chair of UNCG's Faculty Senate Scholarly Communications Committee, which is leading a campus-wide effort to inform faculty and administrators about scholarly communication, in order to make them better aware of the issues and to get them involved in individual and collective actions. He is the former editor of the Journal of Library & Information Services in Distance Learning; and he is the author of The Queen City at War: Charlotte, North Carolina, During World War II, 1939-1945.

Dittrich, Lisa

Director of Publications

American Society of Bone and Mineral Research

Lisa Dittrich joined the publications staff of the ASBMR early this summer; prior to that, she worked for 17 years at the journal Academic Medicine, published by the Association of American Medical Colleges. In her youth, she worked at a library to earn spending money for college, and she still thinks of libraries as homes for books, not computer terminals. She openly admits that some aspects of the Open Access debate make her see red.

2007 Charleston Conference – Speaker Biographies

Dixon-Fyle, Joyce
Coordinator/Librarian Collection Development
DePauw University

Joyce Dixon-Fyle earned a Ph.D. in French Literature and an M.L.S. from Indiana University, Bloomington, Indiana. She is currently Coordinator of Collection Development with rank of Associate Professor at DePauw University in Greencastle, Indiana. She is author of *Female Writers' Struggle for Rights and Education for Women in France (1848-1871)*F, published by Peter Lang, New York.

Doan, Tomalee
Head, Management & Economics Library
Purdue University

Dodds, Leigh
Chief Technology Officer
Ingenta

Dooley, Jim
Head, Collection Services
University of California Merced

Dooley, John
Vice President of Sales
Knovel

Douglas, Myrna
Serials Cataloguer
University of the West Indies Library (UWI), Mona Campus, Jamaica
Myrna Douglas has a Master in Library Studies (MLS) from the University of the West Indies (UWI), Mona, Jamaica and is currently pursuing a Master of Arts in Teaching. She has been working in the library environment at the UWI for over 18 years. In 1999 she was promoted to the level of professional librarian as Head of the Serials Unit at the Science Branch Library, and under her tenure she was instrumental in conducting surveys that led to the acquisition of numerous online journal titles. Her research also led to the cancellation of hundreds of titles which had long lost their relevance to the teaching and research programme in the university. Her research and cost saving strategies also resulted in the development of a Technical Services Division to which she was transferred in 2006, as Serials Cataloguer to assist with the implementation of the serials/acquisitions module of the new integrated library system, Aleph. She has published on various aspects of Librarianship, and played a key role in the production and publication Mona Research for Development Bibliographies and the Mona Online Research Database (MORD) of staff publications.

Downing, Jeff
Associate Director and Manager, Electronic Information Services
Amigos Library Services

Jeff Downing is Associate Director and Manager, Electronic Information Services at Amigos Library Services, where he oversees marketing and sales of scholarly content, including BioOne, GeoScienceWorld, Project Euclid, and ASCUS. A librarian for 25 years, Jeff has worked in academic and special libraries, including the Superconducting Super Collider Laboratory Library (SSC). Unfortunately for Jeff and 1,000 of his closest co-workers, Congress defunded the SSC in 1994, and it now lies unfinished and buried beneath the Texas prairie just south of Dallas. He has held a plethora of diverse positions at Amigos. Jeff has particular interests in scholarly publishing, Dustbowl-era history, and travel, though not necessarily in that order.

2007 Charleston Conference – Speaker Biographies

Duff, Kate
Licensing & Permissions Manager
University of Chicago Press

Kate Duff is the Licensing & Permissions Manager for the Journals Division of the University of Chicago Press. Previously, Kate held a number of positions at the Press, most recently as Publications Manager with responsibility for journals in general sciences, law, and education. Originally hailing from Canada, Kate holds a PhD in Biology from Queen's University, Ontario, and a Masters in Publishing from Simon Fraser University, British Columbia.

Egan, Noelle
Electronic Resources Librarian
Drexel University Libraries

Noelle is both Philadelphia-phile and a spreadsheet enthusiast. Fortunately for her, both passions are fulfilled in her job as the Electronic Resources Librarian for Drexel University Libraries.

Emery, Jill
Head of Acquisitions
University of Texas at Austin Libraries

In addition to being Head of Acquisitions at the University of Texas at Austin, Jill Emery is also Vice-President Elect for the North American Serials Interest Group, a member of the Electronic Resources & Libraries sponsorship committee and a member of Nature Publishing Group's Library Advisory Council. Jill's most recent publication is a chapter in Information Tomorrow: Reflections on Technology & the Future of Public & Academic Libraries. She has writes a column for the Journal of Electronic Resource Librarianship.

Erb, Rachel
Systems Librarian
University of Nebraska Omaha

Before becoming a librarian, Rachel Erb earned a masters degree in Slavic Languages and Literatures, specializing in historical linguistics. She decided to become a librarian while working as a graduate assistant in a research library, and interestingly enough, moonlighting at a campus bar. She began her career as primarily a catalog librarian and moved on to managing technical services. Because she is so beguiled by integrated library systems, she decided to become a systems librarian this year and is enjoying the transition. In her free time, she squeezes in daily runs, and spending time outdoors with her husband.

Erzin, Pinar
Managing Director
Accucoms

Pinar Erzin, Managing Director and co-founder of Accucoms, fulfilled commercial roles in the subscription management industry since 1999, as Sales Manager to corporate libraries in Turkey, Publisher Relations Manager at Swets Blackwell and as General Manager of Extenza Marketing Solutions. In June 2004 she launched Accucoms and has been actively growing the line of services offered to publishers since then. In her role at Accucoms, together with her multilingual team, Pinar works on behalf of publisher helping them serve their clients and reach new markets. This expertise provides and ongoing education about communication needs and issues that librarians come across when accessing publishers' content.

Estelle, Lorraine
CEO
JISC Collections

Lorraine Estelle joined JISC in 2002, after many years in the publishing industry. Lorraine lead the JISC

2007 Charleston Conference – Speaker Biographies

Collections Team with responsibility for identifying digital content and negotiating licence agreements of behalf of the higher and further education sectors. Lorraine is now Chief Executive of a newly established company JISC Collections. She has negotiated agreements for a wide range of online materials from digital archives to films. Lorraine is responsible for NESLi2 the UK's national initiative for the licensing of electronic journals on behalf of the JISC community.

Farrell, Katherine Treptow

Head, Acquisitions

Princeton University Library

MLIS, Rutgers University, 1975. Have held various positions in Technical Services at Princeton University, beginning with a copy cataloging position in 1971. Currently Head, Acquisitions with oversight of monograph and serials acquisitions (since 1987), and Assistant University Librarian for Technical Services (since 1991). Managed the implementation at Princeton of OCLC's Worldcat Selection. Chair of the ALCTS Acquisitions Section Technology Committee; past chair of the ALCTS Directors of Technical Services in Large Research Libraries Discussion Group. Frequent presenter in various venues of the subject of edi and acquisitions workflow. Recipient, with Marc Truitt, of the 2003 Samuel Lazerow Fellowship.

Feick, Tina

Vice President of Customer Relations

Swets

Tina Feick is Vice President of Customer Relations at Swets, one of the world's leading subscription services companies. With a Masters in Librarianship from the University of Denver, Tina was the Head of Serials at the Free Library of Philadelphia and later at Princeton University. She joined Blackwell's Periodicals Division in 1984, which has since merged into Swets. As a Chair of SISAC (Serials Industry Systems Advisory Committee), Tina played a major role in developing EDI transaction sets for the serials industry. For her EDI standards work, she was awarded the 1994 Bowker/Ulrich's Serials Librarianship Award by the American Library Association. In 2005, Tina received the first NASIG (North American Serials Interest Group) Championship Award for her participation in founding NASIG, including being the second and third president of NASIG and for her overall contribution to the serials industry.

Ferguson, Cris

Electronic Resources/Serials Librarian

Furman University

Fischer, Christine

Head of Acquisitions

UNC Greensboro

Christine Fischer has held the position of Head of Acquisitions at the University of North Carolina at Greensboro since 2005.

Fischer, Ruth

Partner

R2 Consulting

Ruth holds an undergraduate degree in History from Earlham College and a Master's degree in Education from Penn State. In January of 2000, Ruth Fischer and her partner Rick Lugg formed R2 Consulting, LLC (www.ebookmap.net). R2 helps libraries to improve their workflows from selection to shelf, and to integrate ILS and materials vendor systems. R2 works with vendors on product development and market analysis, and with publishers on selling eContent to libraries. Ruth and Rick live in Contoocook, New Hampshire.

2007 Charleston Conference – Speaker Biographies

Fisher, Jack

Acquisitions Librarian Valdosta State University

I have been Acquisitions Librarian at Valdosta State University's Odum Library for just over three years. I earned my MLIS from the University of South Florida in 2003 while working in the acquisitions department at the University of Florida. My first job at VSU was an assistant in the library's archives. Before coming to library work I was a music teacher and band director in various public and private schools. I still keep musically active by performing with the 24th Street Klezmer Band. My wife, Elaine Yontz, a professor of library science at VSU, encouraged me to make the move to library work and I've enjoyed it ever since.

Fisher, Janet

Senior Publishing Consultant Publishers Communication Group, Inc.

Janet Fisher is Senior Publishing Consultant with PCG working with academic, commercial, and reference publishers to support their marketing efforts. Her history includes years as Journals Managers at University of Texas Press and MIT Press, then working as a client manager with U.S. publishers on the Ingenta platform. In her spare time, Janet is an accomplished pianist and a not-so-accomplished Maine hiker.

Fleming, Anna

Acquisitions Librarian Northwestern University / Galter Health Sciences Library

Anna began her library career in collection development at the University of Southern California, became library director at the Art Institute of California's new Orange County campus, then ventured into library relations and custom licensing at the University of Chicago Press, before returning to academic libraries. At Galter Health Sciences Library, she coordinates the library's acquisitions, including its electronic resource licensing, and participates on the collection management team.

Fons, Theodore A.

Product Manager Innovative Interfaces, Inc.

Forbes, Chris

CEO Knovel

Chris Forbes joined William Andrew Publishing in 1995. His background and successful experience in finance, publishing, acquisitions, and general management helped William Andrew Publishing launch and develop Knovel Corporation. Before joining William Andrew, Chris founded and was managing director of Toronto Dominion Securities (USA), now TD Waterhouse Securities in New York City. He holds a Bachelor's Degree in Finance from the University of Toronto.

Fortney, Lynn

Vice President & Director, Biomedical Division EBSCO Information Services

Lynn Fortney has been with EBSCO Industries Inc. since 1989. In her position as the Director of the Biomedical Division, Ms. Fortney provides a biomedical library focus for EBSCO Information Services by monitoring trends effecting academic medical center and hospital libraries, recommending new services specifically designed for health sciences librarians, and participating in product development plans. Ms. Fortney is active in the Medical Library Association, has served on its Board of Directors and as Chair, Southern Chapter/MLA. She is a frequent presenter and the author of several articles, including a special theme issue of Reference Services Review on "emerging roles of health sciences librarians”. She has been married to another medical librarian, T. Scott Plutchak, since 1995.

2007 Charleston Conference – Speaker Biographies

Freedman, Shin
Head of Acquisitions & Serials
Framingham State College

Shin Freedman, a freshwater New Englander, is Head of Acquisitions & Serials services at Framingham State College Library in Framingham, MA. Shin received a Master of Science degree in Library and Information Science from Simmons College and earned an MBA with a concentration in Computer Information Systems from Bentley College. She spent considerable time in the business world in the Greater Boston Area. Shin had also directed a school library in Kansas and worked at academic libraries including Brown University Sciences Library, Simmons College Library, and Harvard University Libraries.

Frick, Rachel
Senior Program Officer, National Leadership Grants
Institute of Museum and Library Services

Rachel Frick just started her new position as the Sr. Program Officer for IMLS on Nov. 5th. For over 5 years, she was the Head of Bibliographic and Digital Services at the University of Richmond, Virginia. The Bibliographic and Digital Services department is comprised of Collection Development, Acquisitions, Cataloging, Serials, ILL, Stacks & Building Management, and Digital Library Services. Ms. Frick is a graduate of the Frye Leadership Institute, Class of 2006. Current projects include digitization of Civil War Era Newspapers and the launch of the Mid-Level Career Library and IT Professional Job Exchange (<http://learning.richmond.edu/clirex/>), a web resource that provides institutions the opportunity to advertise expertise, training opportunities, and desired learning expertise.

Fuchs, Sara
Digital Technologies Librarian
Georgia State University

Sara Fuchs works on digital initiatives to promote and provide access to new forms of scholarship at the University Library at Georgia State University. These initiatives include the university's institutional repository, the electronic theses and dissertations database, and the open access journal server. She earned her MSIS from the School of Information at the University of Texas at Austin in May 2005.

Galbraith, James
Head, Collection Development Dept
University of California Irvine

Jim Galbraith is Head of Collection Development at University of California - Irvine. Prior to arriving at Irvine, he was Head of Collections at Wake Forest and Assistant Director for Collection Development at Columbia University. He has a MA in History from the University of Illinois and an MLS from SUNY Buffalo. Current research interests include the growth of Internet-based news services and measuring the informal spread of information on the Internet.

Gammon, Julia
Head, Acquisitions Dept. University Libraries & Interim Marketing Manager
University of Akron Press

Gasser, Sharon
Director of Technical Services
James Madison University

Sharon Gasser is the Director of Technical Services at James Madison University. Since 1995 she has served on the VIVA (Virtual Library of Virginia) Resources for Users Committee. She enjoys living in the central Shenandoah Valley where she recently ended her second career as a dairy farmer (Holstein).

2007 Charleston Conference – Speaker Biographies

Gedye, Richard
Sales Director
Oxford University Press

RICHARD GEDYE has worked in academic journals publishing since 1986, firstly at Macmillan. In 1991 he joined Oxford Journals where he is currently Sales Director. In 2002 he helped found COUNTER (<http://www.projectcounter.org/>), an international organisation which has established a common code of practice for vendor-based online usage statistics, and which he now chairs. He is also chair of a UK Serials Group Project which is investigating the possibility of developing a usage-based measure of journal value to stand alongside the citation based Impact Factor, and was co-chair of the NISO/EDItEUR Joint Working Party for the Exchange of Serials Subscription Information.

Geer, Beverly
Library Sales Manager
Sage Publications

Beverly has 30 years of library and non-library experience, including serials cataloging/acquisitions, technical services administration, and journals and books marketing and sales. She is a NASIG past president, a past chair of the ALCTS Serials Section, and the Associate Editor of Serials Review.

Gelfand, Julia
Applied Sciences Librarian
University of California, Irvine

Julia Gelfand is the Applied Sciences & Engineering Librarian at the University of California, Irvine Libraries. Heavily invested in a variety of collection development and related activities she is committed to her assignments with the California Digital Library, learning more about consortia activities, exploring the future for scholarly publishing and scholarly communication. She is currently active in ALA & IFLA, teaches at the University of Arizona School of Information Resources & Library Science, co-edits Library Hi-Tech News, and writes and lectures on grey literature and science librarianship. New interests include becoming more involved in the SoCal Science Cafe.

Gibbons, Susan
Associate Dean, Public Services & Collection Development
River Campus Libraries, University of Rochester

Susan Gibbons is associate dean for Public Services & Collection Development at the University of Rochester, River Campus Libraries. Ms. Gibbons earned an MLS and M.A. in history from Indiana University, professional MBA from the University of Massachusetts and is currently working on her doctorate in higher education administration.

Glass, Carter
Assistant Director, Electronic Publishing
American Geophysical Union

Carter is the Manager of Electronic Publishing Development at the American Geophysical Union. His mission is to build tools to help scientists collaborate in research and publish their results. In his role as a technology leader at AGU, he has implemented a database-driven electronic publishing system based on XML, an online manuscript submissions system, single article sales and countless workflow and production improvement tools. Before working at AGU, Carter was the Manager of the Internet Publishing and E-commerce unit of The Thomson Corporation Research Labs. He conducted research in XML, database publishing and information commerce. Carter has taught courses in publishing for the University of Virginia and George Washington University.

2007 Charleston Conference – Speaker Biographies

Goodman, David

Previously: Bibliographer and Research Librarian
Princeton University Library

David Goodman, previously Biological Science Bibliographer at Princeton University; and Associate Professor at Palmer Library School, LIU; now Administrator at Wikipedia.

Graves, Tonia

Electronic Resources & Serials Services Librarian Old Dominion University

Tonia Graves is the Electronic Resources & Serials Services Librarian at Old Dominion University in Norfolk, Va. Tonia is a member of the North American Serials Interest Group and has attended a variety of professional conferences, but this is her first time attending the Charleston Conference. When Tonia is not analyzing workflows, trouble-shooting electronic access or providing usage statistics, she likes to go to the beach and ride her bike. She is also slowly but surely pursuing a second master's degree.

Gupta, Nawin

Journals Division Manager
University of Chicago Press

Nawin Gupta has served as Journals Division Manager at the University of Chicago Press since July 2005. Nawin's experience in scholarly publishing spans a period of over thirty years – university presses (Iowa and Chicago), professional associations (American Bar Association and American Medical Association), and commercial publishers (Reed Elsevier). Nawin is passionate about the role scholarly publishers play in advancing scholarship. He has served in many volunteer positions in publishing industry, including executive boards of the PSP Division of the Association of American Publishers, the International Association of STM Publishers, the Association of Medical Publishers, and CrossRef.

Gutmann, Myron

Director

Inter-university Consortium for Political and Social Research (ICPSR), University of Michigan

Myron P. Gutmann is Professor of History and Information and Director of the Inter-university Consortium for Political and Social Research (ICPSR) at the University of Michigan. Gutmann has broad interests in interdisciplinary historical research, especially health, population, economy, and the environment. As Director of ICPSR, he is a leader in the archiving and dissemination of electronic research materials related to society, population, and health, with a special interest in the protection of respondent confidentiality. He is the author or editor of four books and more than seventy articles and chapters. In 2005-2006 he was President of the Consortium of Social Science Associations, an advocacy organization supported by more than 100 professional associations, scientific societies, universities and research institutions.

Haderlie, Brooks

Electronic Services Librarian
Brigham Young University-Idaho

B.A., B.S., M.S., Brigham Young University, Provo, Utah. Graduate studies at Albert-Ludwigs-Universität, Freiburg, Germany. Worked at Chemical Abstracts Service for 14 years.

Hall, Matt

Director of Sales
Serials Solutions

Matt Hall, Director of Sales for Serials Solutions, leads the company's North American sales efforts and has played a critical role in Serials Solutions worldwide expansion. Since 2001, Matt has orchestrated the company's growth to include over 2000 libraries, played a crucial role in the development of all services, and is now a member of Serials Solutions' executive leadership team. Prior to becoming one of Serials Solutions original staff members, Matt consulted organizations in the areas of technology and resource allocation.

2007 Charleston Conference – Speaker Biographies

Hamaker, Chuck

Assoc. University Librarian, Collections and Technical Services
UNC Charlotte

Chuck Hamaker has worked at BYU, Yale, UM-St Louis, LSU and now UNC Charlotte. His main areas of work have been collections and technical services.

Hannay, Bill

Schiff Hardin & Waite Law Firm

Hart, Edward T.

Acquisitions and Serials Librarian, Chiles Legal Information Center
University of Florida

Edward T. Hart is an assistant university librarian at the Lawton Chiles Legal Information Center at the Levin College of Law, University of Florida. His duties include supervision of acquisitions and serials, collection development, and reference. He holds a JD from the New England School of Law and a MLIS from Simmons College.

Harvell, Tony

Head of Acquisitions

University of California San Diego

Head of Acquisitions UC San Diego Libraries and Acquisitions for the California Digital Library. M.L.S. (LSU), M.A. (U. of Miami). I have over 30 years experience in public services, collection development, and technical services in a number of university and research libraries. My current area of expertise is Electronic Resources Management implementation. I have authored two reference books on Spanish and Latin American drama, and have written a number of articles and presented on issues related to collection development and electronic resources management.

Harwell, Mike

Director of Consortia and Group Sales Development EBSCO Information Service

Mike Harwell is EBSCO's Director of Consortia and Group Sales Development for North America. Mike is a graduate of Texas A&M University. He joined EBSCO in 1996 as a Sales Representative and has received many EBSCO sales awards over the past 10 years. Prior to joining EBSCO, Mike held various marketing and sales positions. He lives in Houston, Texas; when he is not traveling for work, Mike is active in a competitive softball league.

Hawkins, Karen

Director of Publication and Information Marketing IEEE Publishing and Information

Heterick, Bruce

Director, Library Relations

JSTOR | ARTstor | Portico | Aluka

Bruce Heterick is Director for Library Relations at JSTOR, ARTstor, Portico, and Aluka, where he has responsibility for extending access to these initiatives on a global basis. Bruce has spent over 20 years in the higher education and library communities. He was an application developer at Virginia Tech before joining VTLS in 1988. Bruce held senior management positions at The Faxon Company and Blackwells, and prior to joining JSTOR in 1999, was a technology consultant in SunGard SCT's higher education consulting practice. Bruce is active in CNI, Educause, and NISO, and has written extensively on information management issues. He holds a B.S. in Management from Virginia Tech, and a M.B.A. from the Pamplin School at Virginia Tech.

2007 Charleston Conference – Speaker Biographies

Hill, Kimberly

Association Librarian, Technology Initiatives

Memorial Sloan-Kettering Cancer Center

Kimberly Hill is a graduate of the University of Oklahoma (Boomer Sooner!) and has worked in a variety of academic and public libraries. At MSKCC, Kim is project manager of the Library web site, the Today's science sparks Editor, product manager for the forthcoming institutional bibliography project, and is involved with a center wide Fedora implementation and various other technology initiatives. In the spirit of full disclosure, Kim spent 3+ years working for Elsevier as an Account Development Manager in Canada and the NE United States, and was heavily involved in the market launch of Scopus.

Holman, Jenifer

Acquisitions/Periodicals Librarian

University of Wisconsin-La Crosse

Highlights from my daily activities currently include creatively managing both our monograph and periodicals budgets, managing our link resolver (SFX), and leading our library's web team. I am very interested in the future of serials jobbers, negotiating licenses with publishers, and learning how to position web content with CSS. This will be both my first Charleston Conference and my first visit to Charleston. I'm looking forward to indulging in one of my favorite activities, antiquing, and touring the Citadel, where my great-grandfather was a physics professor.

Hoole, David

Head of Brand Marketing and Content Licensing

Nature Publishing Group

David Hoole has been Head of Brand Marketing and Content Licensing at Nature Publishing Group (NPG) for the past five years. He graduated from Corpus Christi College, Cambridge, in 1990 with a degree in Natural Sciences. From 1991 to 2001 he worked in a variety of marketing, publishing, and commercial roles at Elsevier. At NPG his responsibilities range from library relations to copyright and self-archiving policies, rights and brand management. Out of the office he's a keen triathlete and foodie. He recently spent six months on secondment at the British Library, as Interim Head of Science.

Horava, Tony

Collection and Information Resources Coordinator

University of Ottawa, Canada

Tony Horava has worked at the University of Ottawa, Canada, for twenty years, in Reference service, Collection Development, Document Delivery, Electronic Resources, and currently as Collection Coordinator which includes managing the Acquisitions unit. His responsibilities include collection coordination, licensing, budget management, and vendor relations and assessment. He has been very active in the Ontario academic library consortium (Ontario Council of University Libraries) where he co-chairs the ebook committee and has co-developed the model license agreement used for consortial agreements. He also sits on the Negotiations Resource Team of the Canadian academic library consortium called CRKN (Canadian Research Knowledge Network). He enjoys singing in a choir, playing tennis and skating.

Howland, Jared

Electronic Resources Librarian

Brigham Young University

Jared Howland is the electronic resources librarian at Brigham Young University (BYU). He received his BS from BYU in 2003 in Economics and his MLS in 2005 from the University of North Texas. His first assignment as electronic resources librarian was to implement a link resolver and ERM. Things have come full circle and he is implementing a new link resolver and will be shortly implementing another ERM.

2007 Charleston Conference – Speaker Biographies

Hutchings, Andrew

CEO

Blackwell Book Services

Andrew joined Blackwell Oxford office in 1987. He worked in both the Information Technology and Marketing departments in Oxford while also completing the Blackwell Management Development program. After a three-year assignment in our Oregon offices leading the integration of our global businesses, Andrew returned to the UK in 1999 taking up the post of Chief Technology Officer. In 2001 he became Vice President of Distribution Services with global responsibility for Distribution and Acquisition. Andrew was appointed Managing Director of Blackwell Book Services UK in March 2005.

Inger, Simon

Publishing Consultant

Simon Inger Consulting

Simon Inger has been working in the journals industry for over twenty years. In this time he has worked for B.H.Blackwell, CatchWord, Ingenta and, since 2002, as an independent consultant. Simon was co-founder and Managing Director of CatchWord Ltd, the world's largest e-journal hosting organization, from its inception in 1995 to its sale to Ingenta in February 2001.

Simon has worked extensively in journal sales, marketing & pricing; e-journal delivery & platform selection; fulfillment & editorial systems selection; management; financial planning; product development; market research; content development; and library technology. In addition he runs training courses for librarians in the UK and Ireland on e-journal technology and management under the banner of UKSG, as well as courses for publishers focused on content delivery through gateways, search engines and library portals.

Simon is often invited to speak at library and publishing conferences on subjects from global e-journal delivery to library portals, OpenURL and linking and their impacts on purchasing and consumption.

Ives, Gary

Coordinator of Electronic Resources

Texas A&M University Libraries

Gary Ives has been the Coordinator of Electronic Resources at Texas A&M University Libraries since 2001. He previously served as the Associate Director for Information Resources at the Medical Sciences Library, Texas A&M University. In those positions, he has managed licensing of and access to electronic resources. Gary also managed document delivery services at the Texas A&M University Medical Sciences Library (1999-2001), and access services at The University of Texas Medical Branch at Galveston Moody Medical Library (1993-1999), the University of Texas at El Paso Library (1991-1993), and the University of Virginia Claude Moore Health Sciences Library (1987-1991).

Jackson, Mildred L.

Associate Dean for Collections

The University of Alabama

Millie Jackson is Associate Dean for Collections at The University of Alabama. Prior to coming to UA, she was Head of Collection Development at Florida State University and held a number of positions at Grand Valley State University, Allendale, MI. She received a BS in Ed. from Central Michigan, an M.A. and Ph.D. in English from Michigan State and an MILS from The University of Michigan. While on sabbatical in 2004-05, Millie coordinated grants and the Tellabration program at the National Storytelling Network in Jonesborough, TN and earned an MA in Storytelling from ETSU.

2007 Charleston Conference – Speaker Biographies

Janke, Rolf

Vice President and Publisher

Sage Reference

Rolf Janke, founder and Vice President/Publisher for Sage Reference, a newly created imprint of Sage Publications, has been involved in academic publishing for over 28 years with experience in text, trade, academic and reference publishing. At Sage Reference, he is responsible for the strategic development and growth of a reference product line directed towards academic and public libraries. He has spoken at many conferences on the future of electronic reference and is a member of the American Library Association. Prior to Sage, Rolf was the Vice President and Publisher for ABC-CLIO and Editorial Director for Blackwell Publishers. He started his career in sales and editorial at Kent Publishing, a division of International Thomson.

Jeong, Sarah

Research & Instruction Librarian-Sciences

Wake Forest University

Sarah Jeong is the Research & Instruction Librarian-Sciences at the Z. Smith Reynolds Library at Wake Forest University. She has a B.S. degree in Biology from Duke University and an M.L.I.S. degree from The University of North Carolina-Greensboro. Sarah is active in the Association of College and Research Libraries Science & Technology Section (ACRL-STIS). Her articles on science librarianship have been published in Science & Technology Libraries and North Carolina Libraries.

Kairis, Rob

Library Director

Kent State University, Stark Campus Library

A graduate of the School of Library and Information Sciences at the University of North Texas, he has worked as a Cataloger and Systems Librarian at Midwestern State University in Texas, as the Systems Librarian at Kent State University in Ohio, and has spent the past 12 years as the Library Director at the Stark Campus of Kent State University. He has strong interests in Library Automation and Information Literacy, in addition to his interests in Cooperation Collection Development. He has served as a data conversion consultant for more than a dozen libraries across the country. He currently serves on the OhioLINK Collection Building Task Force and has focused his research efforts on ways to identify opportunities for statewide cooperative collection development.

Kane, Lauren

Director of Publisher Relations

BioOne

Lauren Kane is the Director of Publisher Relations at BioOne, an innovative, not-for-profit online aggregator of essential bioscience research journals. Lauren joined BioOne in the fall of 2006 to spearhead the organization's communications program and efforts to increase publisher and library services. Prior to joining BioOne, Lauren worked at Blackwell Publishing in the Academic Journals division. Lauren is an active member of the Society for Scholarly Publishing (SSP), currently serving as Co-Chair of the Web Editorial Committee.

Kemp, Rebecca

Serials Supervisor Librarian

UNC Wilmington

Rebecca Kemp is the Serials Supervisor Librarian at UNC Wilmington, where she manages access to online and print titles and facilitates the coverage load process for UNCW's ERM implementation. Her research interests include cooperative JSTOR print-sharing programs, the Open Access movement, Institutional Repositories, and next generation library catalogs and cataloging practices. She has enjoyed attending the Charleston Conference for the past three years.

2007 Charleston Conference – Speaker Biographies

Kemperman, Suzanne
Director of Publisher Relations
NetLibrary

Kendall, Mark
Senior Vice President, North American Sales
YBP Library Services

Mark joined YBP Library Services in 1995 and has more than 20 years of experience serving the needs of research libraries. In addition to YBP, he has held key positions at several scholarly publishers and information aggregators including Executive Director of Library and Consortia Sales for SAGE Publications and Vice President of Library Services for Ingenta. A member of ALA and NASIG, Mark has held key management positions in both Sales and Customer Service. He holds a B.A. in History from St. Michael's College (VT).

Keogh, Patricia
Head of the Cataloging Department/Assistant Professor
Long Island University

Kiker, Doug
Assistant Librarian
University of Florida

Doug Kiker is the head of the Electronic Resources unit in the Acquisitions & Licensing Department of the University of Florida Libraries. His current interests are in librarian perspectives on Electronic Resource Management Systems. Doug is also keen on developing standards that will facilitate the continued enhancement of ERM's with other parts of Integrated Library Systems (ILS). He wonders whether librarians deserve honorary law degrees and IT certifications for the amount of license and systems work they perform for electronic resources.

Kingston, Mary Lynn
Collections Consultant
Coutts Information Services, Inc.

Joined Coutts in 2005 following a marvelous experience as head of Monograph Acquisitions at Johns Hopkins University (Eisenhower Library). She also worked at OCLC, NetLibrary, PALINET, and the National Institute of Standards & Technology. MLS earned (long ago) from the University of Maryland College Park.

Kirk, Elizabeth E.
Associate Librarian for Information Resources
Dartmouth College

Ko, Angela
Assistant Librarian
University of Hong Kong Libraries

Chinese bibliographer Assistant and Fung Ping Shan Librarian of University of Hong Kong Libraries: responsible for acquisitions and collection development of CJK materials and liaison with libraries in China.

Koger, Victoria
Reference Librarian
Eastern Kentucky University

Victoria Koger has been a Reference and Instruction Librarian at Eastern Kentucky University since

2007 Charleston Conference – Speaker Biographies

2002, with a focus on Reference Collection Development. She serves on ECU Libraries Collection Development Advisory Team and Web Advisory Group, has instigated several deselection projects at ECU and is the liaison to Women's Studies, Exercise and Sport Science and Recreation and Park Administration academic departments. Over the past 9 years Victoria has worked at West Virginia State College in Institute, WV, Central Virginia Community College in Lynchburg, VA and Presbyterian College in Clinton, SC. She earned an MLS from Florida State University and a B.A. in Accounting and Philosophy from Lynchburg College.

Koufogiannakis, Denise
Collections and Acquisitions Coordinator
University of Alberta, Canada

Denise Koufogiannakis is Collections & Acquisitions Coordinator at the University of Alberta Libraries. Her professional interests include evidence based librarianship, digital preservation, open access, and new collection formats. Denise graduated from library school in 1997 and is originally from Newfoundland. This is her first visit to South Carolina.

Kubilius, Ramune
Collection Development / Special Projects Librarian
Northwestern University, Galter Health Sciences Library

Ramune Kubilius is Collection Development / Special Projects Librarian at Northwestern University's Galter Health Sciences Library in Chicago, IL. A health sciences librarian for over 25 years, she is a SLA (Special Libraries Association) member, active in MLA's (Medical Library Association's) Collection Development Section and a column editor for MLA News. Charleston Conference involvement has provided opportunities for serving as one of the program directors, assembling panels, recruiting reporters for "Against the Grain". Organizer of the first five "Lively Lunches" on Health Sciences (2000-2005), she is pleased that the lunches continue to be organized and still attract interested conference attendees.

Lachance, Janice
Chief Executive Officer
Special Libraries Association

Janice Lachance has served as SLA Chief Executive Officer since 2003. A popular speaker and commentator, Janice is the champion, spokesperson and global ambassador for SLA members working in 72 countries on five continents. Before joining SLA, she was a management consultant to non-profit and membership organizations in the areas of strategic planning, organization transformation and culture change.

Janice earned a B.A. from Manhattanville College and Juris Doctor degree from the Tulane Law School. She is a member of the Maine and DC bar and is admitted to practice before the U.S. Supreme Court. She is a member of the Board of Directors of The Center for Association Leadership, serves as the Chair of the American Society of Association Executives and The Center for Association Leadership CEO Advisory Board. She is a Member of the Board of Directors of the National Academy of Public Administration and also a Member of the Board of Trustees of the Green Door, a mental health services organization in Washington.

Lamoreux, Selden Durgom
Electronic Resources Librarian and Adjunct Instructor
University of North Carolina at Chapel Hill

Selden Durgom Lamoureux is currently the Electronic Resources Librarian at the University of North Carolina at Chapel Hill. Selden has over 8 years of experience with electronic resources licensing and management. She is also an adjunct professor at the UNC-Chapel Hill School of Information and Library Science. Selden serves on a number of regional and national library committees, and is an active member of the NISO SERU Working Group.

2007 Charleston Conference – Speaker Biographies

Landesman, Margaret
Head, Collections Development
University of Utah Libraries

Margaret Landesman is the Head of Collection Development at Marriott Library, University of Utah. She has worked with the Utah Academic Library Consortium, Pioneer, Utah's Online Library, and the Greater Western Library Alliance. Margaret has served on a number of Library Advisory Boards for various publishers and writes for The Charleston Adviser and Against the Grain. Her favorite activity is promoting SPARC, the Scholarly Publishing and Academic Resources Coalition. She recently has gone to half-time as part of a plan to retire someday.

Langley, Anne
Coordinator of Public Services Assessment and Chemistry Librarian
Duke University

Anne Langley is Coordinator of Public Services Assessment and Chemistry Librarian at Duke University and Adjunct Professor of Chemistry. In addition to her nearly decade at Duke University, she has held librarian positions at North Carolina State University (in physical, mathematical and textiles sciences and in engineering) and at the University of Tennessee. She is the author of two books and numerous articles. Her most recent book, titled Building Bridges: Collaboration Within and Beyond the Academic Library, was published in 2006 by Chandos Publishing. She has served as a consultant for a variety of information science and library projects, including a statewide community college assessment project, and as well, has served as an expert witness in chemical patent court cases. She serves as chair of the science, technology and medicine (STM) collections working group of the Triangle Research Libraries Network and is presently a key partner in that association's pilot project for single-copy storage for STM journals.

Latal, Katherine
Head, Acquisitions Services Department
University at Albany, University Libraries

Kate Latal was appointed Head of the Acquisitions Services Department at the University at Albany, University Libraries in July 2005. Previous to this, she worked as an assistant in Acquisitions focusing on monographic orders since 1986. She received her MLS from the University at Albany in 1992.

Lauridsen, Helle
Technology Manager Europe
ProQuest

Graduate from Royal Danish School of Librarianship 1981. Librarian Department of Chemistry, University of Aarhus, Denmark from 1983-2000, focus Online searching, the development of online resources, journal management and investigation of the first online journals. From 2000-2005 Head of Serials and Online resources of the State and University Library in Denmark. Facilitating the move from print to online of all resources from bibliographies to e-journals and e-books as well as enhancing user access to these resources. Since 2006 Technology Manager for CSA now ProQuest – working with library adaptation of online management resources, usability of online products, development of CSA Illustrata and library consultant and speaker at numerous national as well as international conferences.

Law, John
Director, Strategic Alliances and Platform Management
ProQuest

John Law manages the ProQuest online platform and related partnership arrangements. He is responsible for strategic planning, user research and defining innovative new capabilities for the search engine as well as adoption of standards-based integration technologies. John has over 20 years experience in bringing new products to market in multiple industries and is co-inventor on several patents with IDEO. He has an engineering degree from Michigan State University and a masters degree focused on technology management from Columbia University.

2007 Charleston Conference – Speaker Biographies

When not voyeuristically observing scholarly researchers, John enjoys backpacking with his 6-year-old daughter, competing in triathlons, and reading non-fiction like Scott Berkun's recent Myths of Innovation?

Layman, Richard

Vice President

Brucoli, Clark, Layman, Inc.

Richard Layman has been a reference book publisher and editor for more than thirty years. He has written and edited books about American literature and social history. He has a particular interest in Dashiell Hammett and John Dos Passos.

Lenzini, Rebecca

Publisher

The Charleston Advisor and Charleston Report

Becky Lenzini began her career in libraries in the Serials Department of the University of Illinois at Urbana-Champaign. She was Vice President and Director of The Faxon Company's Academic Division in the 80's, served as President of CARL Corporation (Denver, CO) from 1988 to 1996, and is currently President of The Charleston Company, publisher of The Charleston Advisor and The Charleston Report and co-sponsor of the Fiesole Collection Development Retreat Series. Rebecca was one of the founders of UnCover, the original article retrieval and document delivery service introduced in 1988, now part of Ingenta. She is a member of the Editorial Board of Serials, the official publication of the UKSG. In her spare time, she likes to hike and camp in the Colorado Rockies and is an active supporter of gymnastics for young women in the Denver metropolitan area.

Leonard, Elisabeth

President

Library Solutions

Elisabeth has been Head of Reference, Instruction, & Outreach at the University of California, San Diego and Head of Reference at Wake Forest University. She has led strategic planning and marketing efforts, co-chaired the Leadership Institute for NCLA, and created an information literacy program. She is the former Chair of RUSA's Liaison with Users Committee. She has an MLS from the University of North Carolina, Chapel Hill, an MBA in marketing from Wake Forest University, and is a doctoral student in Library Science at the University of North Carolina, Chapel Hill, studying marketing and innovation.

Leonardt, Thomas W.

Library Director

St. Edward's University

Lindsay, Michael

Electronic Resources/Collection Development Librarian

University of South Alabama Biomedical Library

A relative newcomer to the library field, I was in the insurance field for over 5 years. As Electronic Resources/Collection Development Librarian at the University of South Alabama, I have one foot in the print world and one in the electronic. I am working on building a print collection of rare books for our historical collection; at the same time, I'm responsible for troubleshooting problems with our electronic resources. In trying to develop our monograph collections, particularly print, I've looked for solutions that would bring more faculty participation in selection, enable us to make better use of our budget, and facilitate processing. An approval plan seemed ideal for this. A native of East Tennessee, I live in

2007 Charleston Conference – Speaker Biographies

Mobile, Alabama, with my wife Samantha and our cat.

Lorbeer, Elizabeth R.
Associate Director for Content Management
University of Alabama at Birmingham

Elizabeth "Liz" Lorbeer is the Associate Director of Content Management at the Lister Hill Library of the Health Sciences at the University of Alabama at Birmingham. Liz says, "Being a librarian is my true calling because I am passionate about connecting people to knowledge." She has been a librarian for 12 years and a graduate of the library school at the State University of New York at Buffalo majoring in public librarianship. However, she's only been gainfully employed in large academic and health sciences libraries. Her career aspirations include becoming a library director and working with third world countries to gain better access to scholarly literature.

Lugg, Rick
Partner
R2 Consulting

Rick Lugg and his partner Ruth Fischer formed R2 Consulting in January 2000. For the past seven years, R2 has focused on analysis of selection-to-access workflows in academic libraries. Almost inevitably, these projects lead to scrutiny of service priorities, user expectations, and organizational redesign. R2's overriding professional interest is to help libraries adapt and compete effectively at Web scale. Rick and Ruth speak and write frequently on these topics. Rick is a native of New Hampshire, whose official motto ("Live Free or Die") and unofficial secondary motto ("Common Sense for All") have shaped his worldview. He holds an MLS from Simmons College. He looks forward to the day when MP3 players no longer interfere with aircraft navigation systems.

Lyle, David
Technical Consultant
Blackbaud

David Lyle is a Technical Consultant for Blackbaud in Charleston, SC. This is his 6th year working at the Charleston Conference, and he owns his own small web-design business. Any free time is dedicated to deciding on which graduate school to apply to and getting any education necessary to prepare to start a Phd program in bioinformatics.

Lynch, Clifford
Executive Director
Coalition for Networked Information

Clifford Lynch has been the Director of the Coalition for Networked Information (CNI) since July 1997. CNI, jointly sponsored by the Association of Research Libraries and Educause, includes about 200 member organizations concerned with the use of information technology and networked information to enhance scholarship and intellectual productivity. Prior to joining CNI, Lynch spent 18 years at the University of California Office of the President, the last 10 as Director of Library Automation. Lynch, who holds a Ph.D. in Computer Science from the University of California, Berkeley, is an adjunct professor at Berkeley's School of Information. He is a past president of the American Society for Information Science and a fellow of the American Association for the Advancement of Science and the National Information Standards Organization. Lynch serves on the National Digital Preservation Strategy Advisory Board of the Library of Congress; he was a member of the National Research Council committees that published The Digital Dilemma: Intellectual Property in the Information Infrastructure and Broadband: Bringing Home the Bits.

Machovec, George
Associate Director
Colorado Alliance of Research Libraries

2007 Charleston Conference – Speaker Biographies

Macklin, Lisa A.
Coordinator, Intellectual Property Rights
Emory University Libraries

Mangrum, Suzanne
Collection Management Librarian for Collection Assessment & Development
James E. Walker Library, Middle Tennessee State Univ.

Suzanne Mangrum is the Collection Development and Assessment Librarian at Middle Tennessee State University. She is in charge of the library's liaison program where she and a team of librarians work with faculty to build the collection and meet the library needs of the university faculty and other staff members. She earned her MLS from the University of Southern Mississippi in 2003. Before coming to MTSU in July 2006, Suzanne was the Public Services Librarian at Christian Brothers University in Memphis.

Marcus, Cecily
CLIR Postdoctoral Fellow
University of Minnesota Libraries

Cecily Marcus is a CLIR postdoctoral fellow at the University of Minnesota Libraries. She received her PhD from the department of Comparative Studies in Discourse and Society at the University of Minnesota.

Marsh, Corrie
Associate Director
Hong Kong University of Science & Technology Library

Corrie has been in Hong Kong since 2006. Most recently, she was the managing director of the Texas Center for Digital Knowledge, an interdisciplinary “think tank” at the University of North Texas. She has a diversified background in librarianship, publishing, systems design, marketing, and public relations. Prior to living in Texas, she was the Marketing Director for a group of eight companies in Grand Cayman in the British West Indies. She has worked at ProQuest, Ovid Technologies, and Gale Research, and NOTIS. Corrie worked as a collection management librarian at Georgetown, Brown, and George Washington Universities. She enjoys travel, dining, movies, and gardening. Corrie was an organizer at early Charleston conferences and is very excited to be back at the conference this year.

Marshall, Karen
Associate University Librarian (Information Resources)
University of Western Ontario

Karen Marshall is currently in an acting position as Associate University Librarian (Information Services). Her background includes Director Technical Services and Head of Acquisitions and Head of Government Publications - all at the University of Western Ontario in London, Ontario Canada. For the last four years she has also been a member of the Scholars Portal Operational Team which manages Scholars Portal for the Ontario Council of University Libraries.

Massey, Tinker
Serials Librarian
Embry Riddle Aeronautical University

Ms Massey has worked in libraries over thirty years in numerous capacities, as well as a number of other companies in non-library positions. She is well known as a presenter and keynote speaker at library conferences around the United States and an author of many articles, children's stories, and poetry in various publications. She is a columnist in ATG and a regular contributor to Associates, an e-journal. Her current position is Serials Librarian in the Hunt Library at Embry-Riddle Aeronautical University.

2007 Charleston Conference – Speaker Biographies

Matlak, Jeffrey
Electronic Resources
Western Illinois University

Matthews, Tansy
Associate Director
The Virtual Library of Virginia (VIVA)

Tansy Matthews is the Associate Director for VIVA (the Virtual Library of Virginia), the consortium of institutions of higher education in the Commonwealth of Virginia. Tansy holds an M.L.I.S. from Drexel University. Some medical librarians may remember her for her term as the "other end of the email" at the National Library of Medicine's LinkOut for Libraries program. In a checkered past spent bouncing around the United States, Tansy has also worked with ILL at the Hahnemann Medical Library in Philadelphia, in IT at the Philadelphia Museum of Art, and as a cataloger at the University of California, Berkeley's Architecture Visual Resources Library and the Savannah College of Art & Design's Art History Slide Library.

Matz, Chris
Library Director
Christian Brothers University

Chris Matz is the Library Director for Christian Brothers University in Memphis TN as of September 2007. Prior to that, he was the Collection Development Librarian at the University of Memphis, and interim library director at Livingstone College in Salisbury NC. This is his 7th Charleston Conference, and he looks forward to at least 70 more. He has earned a BS in Political Science from the University of Oregon, an MLS from the University of North Carolina-Greensboro, and an MA in English from the University of Memphis. He seems to be off the comic books at last and moving on to more reputable topics. Attend his session this year and judge for yourself.

Maxted, Lawrence
Collection Development Librarian
Gannon University

Collection Development Librarian at Gannon University, a business/economics reviewer, instructor of investment and personal finance courses, and is an active daily user of business intelligence.

McDonald, Robert H.
Director Strategic Data Alliances
San Diego Supercomputer Center/UC San Diego

Robert H. McDonald (<http://www.sdsc.edu/~mcdonald>) is the Director for Strategic Data Alliances at the San Diego Supercomputer Center (SDSC) a research unit of UC San Diego. At SDSC Robert has been a part of the Chronopolis Digital Preservation Program and has worked closely with partners such as the Library of Congress, the California Digital Library, and the UC San Diego Libraries. Prior to his involvement with SDSC/UCSD he served as the Associate Director of Libraries for Technology & Research at Florida State University. Robert is an active speaker and writer and has presented previously at the EDUCAUSE Annual Conference, the Coalition for Networked Information Task Force Meetings, the American Library Association, and the LITA National Forum.

McKay, Peter Z.
Business Librarian
University of Florida Libraries

Peter Z. McKay is the Business Librarian and Interim Chair of the Collection Management Department of the George A. Smathers Libraries at the University of Florida. Mr. McKay became the business librarian at the University of Florida after receiving a Master of Science of Library Science degree at the University of Kentucky in 1984. He also holds a Master of Science in Economics and a Bachelor of Science in Accounting degrees from the University of Kentucky. He has published articles in library journals, numerous business reference reviews, and core bibliographies of business books. He designed and manages an online business library. He has served as a library consultant in Russia and Kyrgyzstan.

2007 Charleston Conference – Speaker Biographies

McKiel, Allen

Director of Libraries

Northeastern State University

As a librarian, the focus of my professional interests and activities throughout my career has been the transition of libraries into an environment of electronically distributed information. I have a strong technology background for a librarian, which has inclined me to play an active role in the transition. I am currently the Director of Libraries for Northeastern State University in Oklahoma but have accepted the position of Dean of Library and Media Services for Western Oregon University. I have recently published a book, Beyond Tolerance: Religion and Global Community, which looks to the scriptures of the world's religions for confirmation of their underlying unity.

Michaelson, Robert

Head, Science and Engineering Library

Northwestern Univ.

I'm an ex-chemist (Ph.D., Yale, 1972), with an MLS from Chicago. (While in Library School I saw some of the publishing process from the inside as an assistant to J. Willard Stout, Editor of the Journal of Physics). I have been a professional librarian since 1974, at Syracuse, Yale, and, since 1980, in my current position at Northwestern. I am a long-time member of SLA, and was honored with the SLA Physics-Astronomy-Mathematics Division's Achievement Award for 2007. Since 2005 I have been a member of the Library Advisory Committee of the Optical Society of America.

Millikin, David

Product Manager, Library Logistics

OCLC, Inc.

David Millikin received his B.S.B.A., double-majoring in Transportation & Logistics and Operations Management, at the Fisher College of Business at The Ohio State University. He worked for one year in sales administration and five years in supply chain management at a multi-national manufacturing company, where he gained valuable experience coordinating and setting up systems across 180 multi-national production sites to achieve stronger logistics and procurement collaboration and reduce supply chain costs. David has worked at OCLC since October 2006, developing solutions to reduce supply chain inefficiencies and save libraries money in the physical movement of print materials, including leadership of the pilot program designed to reduce shelf space requirements among CCMT institutions.

Montgomery, Jack G.

Coordinator, Collection Services

Western Kentucky University Libraries

Jack G. Montgomery earned his B.A. from the University of South Carolina and his MLS at the University of Maryland–College Park. First, as a law librarian he worked in acquisitions, serials, and collection development in academic law libraries in Virginia, Ohio, and Missouri. Montgomery has worked at Western Kentucky University since 1998 where he is an Associate Professor/Collection Services Coordinator. He writes a regular column for the Against the Grain magazine and serves on its editorial board. He's been professionally speaking at AALL and Charleston Conference programs since 1989 and at ALA and regional and programs since 1999. Montgomery also conducts professional seminars on Emotional Intelligence to library groups nationwide and is a professional musician.

2007 Charleston Conference – Speaker Biographies

Morgan, Eric Lease

Head of Digital Access and Information Architecture Department University Libraries of Notre Dame

Eric Lease Morgan is the Head of Digital Access and Information Architecture Department at the University Libraries of Notre Dame. He considers himself to be a librarian first and a computer user second. His professional goal is to discover new ways to use computers to increase library collections and improve library services. Some of his more notable investigations have surrounded the automatic collection of electronic serials, the indexing of open access content, and the personalization of library websites. In 2002 he won the Bowker/Ulrich's Serials Librarianship Award for creating and enhancing "the value of electronic serials within the library and scholarly communities." In his spare time, he can be seen folding defective floppy discs into intricate origami flora and fauna.

Morris, Carolyn

Director, New Business Development
Coutts Information Services

Carolyn Morris has worked with academic publishers and libraries since 2000. She has served as a buyer, collection development manager, consortia manager, and director of sales for YBP Library Services. She currently is Director of New Business Development for Coutts Information Services.

Mouw, James

Assistant Director for Technical & Electronic Services University of Chicago Libraries

James R. Mouw is Assistant Director for Technical and Electronic Services at The University of Chicago and has previously held positions at the University of Illinois at Chicago and Gardner-Webb College in North Carolina. He is also adjunct professor at Dominican University School of Library and Information Science (formerly Rosary College) where he teaches the class on serials. Mr. Mouw holds a B.A. in Music from Calvin College, Grand Rapids, Michigan and an MLS from Western Michigan University, Kalamazoo. An active member of ALA and ALCTS, he is past-chair of the Acquisitions Section of ALCTS, and is a member of numerous ALA and ALCTS committees. Mouw is a regular contributor to library journals, focusing on issues related to the acquisition of serial titles and the linking of electronic resources.

Moyle, Martin

Digital Curation Manager
University College London

Martin Moyle is Digital Curation Manager at UCL (University College London), where he has responsibilities for digital asset management, repositories and preservation. He is Project Manager for the RIOJA (Repository Interface to Overlaid Journal Archives) project, which is exploring overlay journals in the field of astrophysics. Additionally, he manages SHERPA-LEAP (<http://www.sherpa-leap.ac.uk>), the London Eprints Access Project, which has created institutional repositories at 13 London institutions, and several related initiatives, including the development of an OAI-based cross-searching service for London's repositories. He also coordinates the DART-Europe (<http://www.dart-europe.eu>) programme, which is building an open access Portal to European etheses.

Mullins, James

Dean of Libraries
Purdue University

Murdoch, Robert

Asst. University Librarian for Collection Development & Technical Services
Brigham Young University

2007 Charleston Conference – Speaker Biographies

Murphy, Karen
Acquisition Librarian
US Army

Karen Murphy is the deployment services librarian for the US Army Library Program headquartered in Alexandria, VA. She selects paperback books, audio books and periodicals for soldiers, sailors and Marines in 135 countries around the world. Previously Karen directed Air Force libraries in Ramstein, Germany and Croughton, England, and Navy libraries in Norfolk and Virginia Beach, VA. Karen received a Bachelors Degree in Political Science from UCLA and an MLS from Catholic University.

Murray, Adam
Interim Dean of University Libraries / Head of Acquisitions
Murray State University

I am a relatively recent graduate from the University of North Carolina at Greensboro, having completed my MLIS in 2006. My career goals include moving into library administration, and I been given an excellent opportunity to learn more about this during my recent appointment to Interim Dean of University Libraries. My research focus is on the communal aspects of information science, including the use of technology to build better information-use communities.

Myerson, Joel
Carolina Distinguished Professor, Emeritus
University of South Carolina

Joel Myerson is an authority on Transcendentalism and textual and bibliographical studies who has written, edited, co-authored, or co-edited some fifty books, including bibliographies of the Brook Farm community, Emily Dickinson, Ralph Waldo Emerson, Margaret Fuller, and Walt Whitman. He has also edited works by Louisa May Alcott, Emerson, and Fuller. A recipient of Guggenheim, Fulbright, and multiple NEH fellowships, he has also served as president of the Association for Documentary Editing, Emerson Society, and Thoreau Society. He donated The Joel Myerson Collection of Nineteenth-Century American Literature, comprising over 12,000 volumes, to the University of South Carolina in 2001.

Nardini, Bob
Group Director, Client Integration & Head Bibliographer
Coutts Information Services

Bob Nardini joined Coutts in 2007 after spending 21 years at YBP Library Services working with approval plans, with databases, and in other areas of the company. He has an M.L.S. from the University of Toronto.

Neville, Robert
Assistant Dean, Addlestone Library
College of Charleston

Bob Neville is Assistant Dean of Technical Services at the College of Charleston and it has been his pleasure to work with Katina for over 26 years. He holds a B.A. from Dickinson College in English literature and an M.A. in English and and M.L.S. from the University of Maryland.

Nicholas, David
Director, School of Library, Archive and Information Studies
University College London

Professor David Nicholas is Director of the School, Chair of Library and Information Studies, School of Library, Archive and Information Studies (SLAIS), University College London. SLAIS is known as the 'information rainbow' school because of the wide range of information subjects, including publishing, it covers. He is also Director of Ciber (Centre for Information Behaviour and the Evaluation of Research <http://www.ucl.ac.uk/ciber/>) and Director of the UCL Centre for Publishing. Previously he was Head, Department of Information Science, City University; and previous to that MA Course Tutor, School of

2007 Charleston Conference – Speaker Biographies

Information and Communication Studies, University of North London. Research interests include: the impact of ICTs on strategic user groups; policy implications of digital environments; digital libraries/websites - use and evaluation; digital information consumers; digital health services; deep log analysis; scholarly communication; information needs analysis and information seeking behaviour; the digital transition.

Niemeyer, Nick
Site License Manager
Annual Reviews

Nick Niemeyer is the Site License Manager at Annual Reviews in Palo Alto, California. Nick's career has been spent in academic publishing, with 20 years in law school textbook publishing, 5 years in Science college textbook publishing, and 3 years with Annual Reviews. His fave raves include catching Preston Sturges movies at the Stanford Theater and trying to decide whether Randy Newman or Rufus Wainwright has the worst voice in pop music.

Nolan, Anne Cerstvik
Electronic Resources Librarian
Brown University Library

Anne Cerstvik Nolan has been the Electronic Resources Coordinator at the Brown University Library since 2005. Her position includes many facets of e-resource management, including vendor negotiation, license negotiation, and oversight for all electronic resources including off-campus access. Prior to that, Anne was the Assistant Head of Reference at Brown for 13 years, a position that included responsibility for the Interlibrary Loan department, Reference, Collection Development for History, and integration of electronic resources into the Reference collection. Prior to working at Brown, Anne was the Acting Head, Database Services, at the University of Pittsburgh.

O'Donnell, James J.
Professor of Classics and Provost
Georgetown University

Provost at Georgetown since 2002, James J. O'Donnell is a leading scholar in late Roman and early medieval history and culture, a long-time advocate of networked information technology in the humanities and higher education, and a friend of tigers, donkeys, and penguins. His latest book, *Augustine: A New Biography* is in paperback from HarperCollins and his next, on the fall of the Roman empire, will appear from HarperCollins in 2008.

Okerson, Ann
Associate University Librarian
Yale University

Since 1996, Ann Okerson has been at Yale, following experience in academic library management, the commercial sector, and as senior program officer at the Association of Research Libraries. In 1996, she organized the Northeast Research libraries consortium (NERL), a group of 26 large and 40 smaller libraries negotiating for electronic information and engaging in other cooperative activities. She is one of the active, founding spirits of the International Coalition of Library Consortia (ICOLC). Activities include many projects, publications, advisory boards, and speaking engagements around the world, as well as professional awards. She is a leader in licensing electronic scholarly resources, developing a model contract used by libraries and organizations everywhere. She is a Principal Investigator on several grants for building components of a Middle East Virtual Library and a Foundation grant for improving liberal arts teaching through use of library special collections.

Pan, Bing
Assistant Professor and Head of Research, Dept. of Hospitality and Tourism Management
College of Charleston

2007 Charleston Conference – Speaker Biographies

Perry, Anali Maughan

Assistant Librarian - Collections & Scholarly Communication Arizona State University Libraries

Anali Maughan Perry received her Master's degree in Information Resources and Library Science from the University of Arizona in 2005, and her Bachelor's of Music in Guitar Performance from Arizona State University in 2000. Prior to completing her master's degree, she worked as a library specialist at Arizona State University Libraries in the interlibrary loan department. She has been ASU's Assistant Collections & Scholarly Communications Librarian since July 2006. Anali enjoys reading, playing guitar, all types of games, and softball. She lives with her husband Chris, and 2 cats.

Peters, Paul

Head of Business Development Hindawi Publishing Corp

Paul Peters is the Head of Business Development for the Hindawi Publishing Corporation. Since joining the company in 2004, Paul has been responsible for the development of Hindawi's growing open access journal collection, which currently contains more than 90 titles covering a wide range of subjects in Science, Technology, and Medicine. In addition, Paul was responsible for overseeing the conversion of Hindawi's entire subscription based journal collection to an open access model, which was completed in early 2007.

Phillips, C. Michael

Assistant Head, Reference/Interlibrary Loan Coordinator Addlestone Library, College of Charleston

Michael holds a Master of Music in Performance from the University of Missouri, Kansas City and a Masters of Library Science from the University of South Carolina. Employed by the College of Charleston Library since 1982, he worked 8 years in technical services before moving to reference and interlibrary loan in 1990. Michael is also currently serving as interim Associate Dean for the School of Languages, Cultures, and World Affairs at the College of Charleston.

Plutchak, T. Scott

Director, Lister Hill Library of the Health Sciences University of Alabama at Birmingham

T. Scott Plutchak has been Director of the Lister Hill Library of the Health Sciences at the University of Alabama at Birmingham (UAB) since 1995. From 1999 through 2005 he was the editor of the Journal of the Medical Library Association (JMLA), and presently serves on the editorial board of Evidence Based Library and Information Practice. He has served in a variety of capacities for the Medical Library Association and is currently a member of the MLA Board of Directors. He is a frequent guest speaker on topics ranging from intellectual property to scholarly communication to the future of librarianship, and maintains a blog at <http://tscott.typepad.com>. In his spare time, he leads the international librarian rock band, The Bearded Pigs (<http://beardedpigs.org>).

Polsky, Bruce

Chief Executive Officer AAN Press

Bruce Polsky has worked in publishing for more than 27 years. In his present capacity as CEO of the for-profit subsidiary of the American Academy of Neurology, he is responsible for management of the core publishing programs, including the AAN's flagship journal, Neurology. In 2005, Mr. Polsky founded the award-winning patient magazine, Neurology Now, which now reaches about 1 million readers.

2007 Charleston Conference – Speaker Biographies

Powers, Audrey

Librarian/Research Services & Collections

University of South Florida

Audrey Powers is a Research Librarian for the Natural Sciences at the University of South Florida. Since 1978 she has held a variety of professional library positions at academic institutions such as Cold Spring Harbor Laboratory, Penn State, Ohio State, Bucknell University, York Technical College and the University of Montevallo. A major research focus throughout this time has been the development and implementation of electronic databases.

Reilly, Bernard

President

Center for Research Libraries

Bernard F. Reilly is President of the Center for Research Libraries, a partnership of 238 U.S. and Canadian universities, colleges and independent research libraries. Reilly was principal investigator for two digital preservation projects funded by the Andrew W. Mellon Foundation: the Political Communications Web Archiving investigation (2002-2004) and the Auditing and Certification of Digital Archives project. Reilly was previously Director of Research and Access at the Chicago History Museum (1997-2001), where he directed digitization and dissemination of the CHM library, archives, architecture, sound, and pictorial collections; and Head of the Curatorial Section in the Prints and Photographs Division of the Library of Congress (1987-1997), which provided curatorial and policy support to the early development of the National Digital Library.

Rhind-Tutt, Stephen

President

Alexander Street Press

Stephen Rhind-Tutt is President of Alexander Street Press, an electronic publishing company in the Humanities and Social Sciences. He has 18 years of experience in Electronic Publishing, with a number of different companies. From 1989-1995 he held a variety of roles at SilverPlatter Information, including Vice President Health Sciences Publishing, and Vice President U.S. Region. In these roles he was responsible for the development, sales and management of more than 200 electronic products. Until its sale to Proquest, Stephen was President of Chadwyck-Healey, Inc. where he developed and distributed more than 150 electronic products, including the world's largest collection of primary texts in English and American Literature.

Richardson, Tom

Director of Institution Sales & Service

New England Journal of Medicine

Tom Richardson is the Director of Institutional Sales & Service for the New England Journal of Medicine. In this role, Tom is responsible for institutional sales and library relations around the world. He has been at the Journal for 16 years in a variety of marketing, business management, product management, and product development roles. Tom led the development of the NEJM Weekly CME Program and co-lead the development of the Journal's site license program. Tom is a member of the Society for Scholarly Publishing, currently serving on the Education Committee. A frequent speaker at library and publishing industry events, Tom also serves on the editorial board of the scholarly journal Learned Publishing. Tom is a member of the international librarian rock band, The Bearded Pigs.

Ridlen, Peggy

Assistant Professor and Reference/Instruction Librarian

Fontbonne University

I earned a MASL from UMC in Columbia, MO and a BS in Education from MSU in Springfield, MO. In addition, I hold a teaching certificate K-12 and have completed 30+ graduate hours in gifted education and 15+ hours in French. After working as a Library Media Specialist for Hazelwood School District in St. Louis County, MO for many years, I came to Fontbonne University as a reference/instruction librarian and assistant professor. This dual role enables me to bring students and good books together, a process that I enjoy immensely. My hobbies include traveling and studying French. Most of my free time, however, is spent reading. My three all time favorite fiction books are The Power of One by Bryce Courtenay, A Prayer for Owen Meany by John Irving and Pillars of the Earth by Ken Follett.

2007 Charleston Conference – Speaker Biographies

Rios, Lesley

Collection Management Librarian and Assistant Professor for Library Administration University of Illinois at Urbana-Champaign

Rittelmeyer, Paul

Head, Acquisitions

University of Virginia Library

Paul has been the Head of Acquisitions at the UVa Library for over six years. He started there as the Digital Acquisitions Librarian in 1999. During this time he has successfully negotiated over 150 licenses for online resources, coordinated 4 substantial Request for Proposals (RFPs) for the library, and organized several Big Deals for the doctoral universities in Virginia, while managing a staff of 12 paraprofessionals. In his spare time he enjoys listening to good bluegrass music and playing the banjo very poorly.

Rockwood, Irving

Editor & Publisher

CHOICE Magazine

Irving Rockwood is Editor and Publisher of CHOICE. Founded in 1963-1964 and based in Middletown, Connecticut, CHOICE is a publishing unit of the Association of College & Research Libraries, a division of the American Library Association. Since coming to CHOICE in 1995, Irv has overseen the launch of several iterations of CHOICE's online publication, ChoiceReviews.online. As confused as everyone else about the future of scholarly publishing, he remains a firm believer in the value of a broad historical and social perspective when analyzing current trends and predictions.

Rolnik, Zac

Publisher

NOW Publishers

Zac Rolnik has been in the scholarly publishing industry for the past 21 years. In 2003 he founded an online publishing start-up called Now Publishers ( www.nowpublishers.com). He started his publishing career as an acquisitions editor in business and economics at Kluwer Academic Publishers and had positions of Publishing Director for Business and Economics, Managing Director of Kluwer Boston, and left Kluwer in 2002 as Global VP for Publishing. Zac has started 50 new journals and over 500 books. He has his BA in political science from the University of Rochester and Masters in Public Policy from Harvard University.

Russell, Ian

Chief Executive

Association of Learned & Professional Society Publishers

Ian Russell is Chief Executive of the Association of Learned and Professional Society Publishers (ALPSP). Ian joined ALPSP in October 2006 and before that was Head of Publishing at the Royal Society - the UK's national academy of sciences. His interest in scientific publishing began at age 15 when he was a regular contributor to 'Scope', the magazine of the British Association of Young Scientists. He has spent the best part of a decade and a half working for Society publishers including ten years at Institute of Physics Publishing - the last five of those managing their journals editorial operation. Ian is a Director of the Copyright Licensing Agency, Portland Press Limited and the Publishers' Licensing Society. He has a degree in Physics and Astronomy from Southampton University (UK).

2007 Charleston Conference – Speaker Biographies

Ruttenberg, Judy

Project Librarian

Triangle Research Libraries Network (TRLN)

Judy has worked at TRLN since 2005. Prior to that, she worked as a research librarian at the University of California Irvine, a reference and instruction librarian at California State University Fullerton, and a librarian for the National Criminal Justice Reference Service. Judy has an MLS from the University of Maryland and an MA in History from the University of Massachusetts.

Ryan, Marianne

Associate Dean for Learning

Purdue University Libraries

Safley, Ellen

Senior Associate Director for Public Services and Collections

University of Texas at Dallas Libraries

Ellen is the Senior Associate Library Director for Public Services and Collection Development. She holds a number of national and state committee appointments and is involved with many organizations including the American Library Association, the UT Digital Library, and TexShare. Her education includes degrees in Anthropology from the University of Colorado and Pennsylvania State University, in Library Science from the University of Pittsburgh, and in Political Economy from the University of Texas at Dallas. Her doctoral dissertation concentrated on structural and geographical changes within the urban retail sector. When Ellen is not at work, she is either gardening in her backyard sanctuary, reading, or painting.

Sally, Dana M.

Dean of University Libraries, Professor, Dept. of Philosophy

University of West Florida

I have worked in academic libraries since 1975, after receiving my MLS at the Univ. of Pittsburgh. Currently, I am the Dean of University Libraries at the University of West Florida, where I also teach philosophy. Previous library positions include: Associate Director, UNC Greensboro; Co-Head of Public Services at Virginia Tech; Head of the Evansdale Library at WVU; Brauer Librarian at UNC-Chapel Hill; and Acting Director at Juniata College in Huntingdon, PA. I am interested in all aspects of learning and cognition, and their relationships to literacy, psycho-linguistic development and the imagination. In addition to the MLS, I hold an MA and Ph.D. in philosophy and enjoy reading, walking, blues, and loafing around in my yard.

Sarazin, Georges

Vice President of Sales, North America

Swets

Georges Sarazin is Vice President of Sales for Swets North America. Georges joined Swets in 2001 as Country Manager for Canada. Prior to that he was National Sales Manager of the U.S. headquarters of Faxon-Rowecom Academic Library Services and held sales and management positions in various industry related companies, including Blackwell's Information Services. Before those positions, Georges was Serials Acquisitions Manager at the Canada Institute for Scientific and Technical Information (CISTI). He is an active member of various U.S. and Canadian library associations, as well as the Swets Client Advisory Board and Swets Industry Leaders Focus Group.

Sayar, Kevin

President

ebrary

Kevin Sayar is the Co-Founder and President of ebrary. Prior to co-founding ebrary in 1999, Mr. Sayar worked with Wilson Sonsini Goodrich & Rosati (WSGR), considered the U.S. leader in high technology start-up representation, to provide legal research and analysis on corporate securities litigation, intellectual property and technology transactions. While attending law school, Mr. Sayar was an independent consultant to start-up businesses in early stage development. He specialized in strategic market penetration, business development and copyright issues on the Internet. Mr. Sayar holds a J.D. from California Western School of Law and a B.A. in English from the University of California, Berkeley.

2007 Charleston Conference – Speaker Biographies

Schader, Barbara

Assistant University Librarian, Collections & Scholarly Communication Riviera Library, University of California Riverside

Most of my career has been spent in Medical and Life Sciences Librarianship. I was a VA Medical Librarian for 2 years (Ohio, Pennsylvania and New Mexico) and then moved to the University of California - first at Berkeley in the Public Health Library, then at UCR as Head of the Science Libraries, then UCLA as Head of Collection Development for the Biomedical Library and finally back to UCR as AUL for Collections and Scholarly Communication. I also did a brief stint at Cal Poly San Luis Obispo on California's beautiful Central Coast - think of the movie "Sideways". I love being part of Collection Development and Scholarly Communication issues in the 21st Century - it is exciting and challenging!

Schlass, Bettina

Product Manager Scopus
Elsevier

Bettina Schlass is Product Manager Scopus at Elsevier, mainly responsible for the author identifier feature and user feedback. She holds an MA in German Literature and worked 7 years in the localization business before joining Elsevier in 2000.

Schmidle, Deb

Associate Librarian
Cornell University

Deb Schmidle is an Associate Librarian in Collections, Reference, Outreach, and Instruction at the John M. Olin Library, Cornell University. She holds a B.S. from Binghamton University and an M.L.S. from Syracuse University. She has a wide breadth of experience in the library community, having spent over twenty-five years in the Cornell University Libraries as well as having held the position of bibliographer and adjunct faculty member at the University of Albany. In addition to her work in academic libraries, Deb is former Director of Library and Information Services at Nylink in Albany, NY.

Schonfeld, Roger

Manager of Research Ithaka

Roger Schonfeld leads the research group at Ithaka, where he studies how new technologies are affecting academia and how the changes they bring can best be managed. His recent work focuses on the transition to an electronic-only journals environment, faculty attitudes towards new technologies, and the history and future of texts' survivability. Roger is the author of JSTOR: A History (Princeton, 2003), which examines the sustainability of scholarly resources by focusing on JSTOR's development. He has also published The Nonsubscription Side of Periodicals (CLIR, 2004) and the most comprehensive examination of the systemwide print book collection, "Books without Boundaries," J of Electronic Publishing, 2006. Previously, Roger was a research associate at The Andrew W. Mellon Foundation.

Schufreider, Bob

US Sales Manager MPS Technologies

With over 12 years of experience, the last 8 directing and managing publisher and library relations, Bob has seen the evolution in library and publisher needs up close. Before his current position as US Sales Manager for MPS Technologies since 2005, he managed publisher relations for Ingenta. Bob cut his teeth in library sales for EBSCO Publishing before becoming their Director of Content Licensing in 1999. Bob has spoken at and/or been a member of NFAIS, SSP, NASIG, SLA, MLA, ALA and dozens of other forums related to managing electronic resources. Before EBSCO, Bob spent nine years as a Radio News Director and Talk Show Host in the Greater Boston area.

2007 Charleston Conference – Speaker Biographies

Scott-Lichter, Diane
Senior Director, Publications
The Endocrine Society

Diane Scott-Lichter's, experience encompasses both society and commercial publishing, including business, management, new business development, acquisitions, editorial, and production. Currently Senior Director, Publishing, for The Endocrine Society since April 2007, she oversees all aspects of business, production, marketing, sales, and strategic development for the Society's scholarly publications. Just prior to her current position she was Vice President and Publisher for Blackwell Publishing, where she was responsible for new business development. Before that she was Publishing Director for the American Cancer Society, overseeing professional and consumer books, as well as scholarly journals, publishing strategy and business operations. Ms. Scott-Lichter earlier had held senior positions at Elsevier Science and Carden-Jennings Publishing, and served as managing editor for the American Cancer Society's research journals.

Ms. Scott-Lichter is President-Elect of the Council of Science Editors, a member of the Board of Directors of the Society for Scholarly Publishing, and Vice-Chair of the American Heart Association's Scientific Publishing Committee, which oversees the AHA publications program. She holds a B.S. in biochemistry from the University of Maryland, College Park, and a M.A. from New York University.

Seaman, Sheila
Assistant Director, Public Services
College of Charleston

Shelburne, Wendy Allen
Electronic Resources Librarian
University of Illinois at Urbana Champaign

Wendy Allen Shelburne is Electronic Resources Librarian at the University of Illinois at Urbana-Champaign Library. She received her MS from the University of Illinois at Urbana-Champaign, and also holds a MA in Russian and East European Area Studies from the same institution. Her research interests include access to and management of electronic and digital resources, usage of electronic resources and their impacts upon scholarship, scholarly publishing, and collection development strategies for the digital age.

Shepherd, Peter
Project Director
COUNTER

Over a 25-year career, Peter Shepherd has become intimately acquainted with most aspects of STM journal, book and database publishing, initially with Wiley and subsequently with Pergamon, Elsevier and Harcourt. Dr Shepherd is now an independent publishing consultant. Since 2002 he has been Director of COUNTER, the not-for-profit international organization whose mission is to improve the quality and reliability of online usage statistics.

Peter Shepherd received a PhD in chemistry in 1978 from St Andrews University and joined the publishing industry in 1980, following a post-doctoral research fellowship at the University of California, Santa Barbara. Under his nom de plume, Tom Angus, he also writes fiction and in 2005 published a satirical novel based in the STM publishing world – Let Them Eat Cake.

2007 Charleston Conference – Speaker Biographies

Shetler, James D.
Vice President, Library Technical Services
YBP Library Services

Jim Shetler began working at YBP in May, 2004 as the regional sales manager for the Northeast. In June 2005 he accepted the position of Director, Library Technical Services and in Nov., 2006 was promoted to Vice President of Library Technical Services. Prior to working at YBP he was the assistant head of acquisitions at Sterling Memorial Library, Yale University. Jim has an extensive background in all aspects of technical services and specializes in serials control and government documents. He is also a trainer for the CONSER's Serials Cataloging Cooperative Training Program.

Shirk, Gary
CEO
YBP Library Services

Simqu, Blaise
CEO and President
Sage

Sinha, Reeta
Collection Development Manager
YBP Library Services, Inc.

As a YBP CD Manager based in Las Vegas, I am responsible for managing services we provide to academic libraries in several states in the Southwest. Before joining YBP, I served as Head of Collection Development at the UNLV Libraries from 2002-2006. My first job in libraries was processing approval books and from 1985 to 2002, I held positions in Collection Development and as Director of Serials at the Texas Medical Center Library in Houston; served as Head of Collection Management at the Emory University Health Sciences Center Library, and as Director of Serials for the Hoover Institution Library at Stanford University. I have a B.A. in Geography from the Univ. of Minnesota; a Master's in Public Health from the Univ. of Texas-Houston and an M.S. in Lib.Sci. from the Univ of North Texas.

Smith, Donna
Assistant Head of Technical Services
Northern Kentucky University

Donna Smith is the Assistant Head of Technical Services at Northern Kentucky University in Highland Heights, Kentucky. She received her MLS degree from the University of Kentucky. Primary responsibilities include the oversight of the library's acquisitions, serials, and government documents departments. Donna is responsible for reviewing, negotiating, and tracking license agreements for the library's electronic resources, as well as managing the electronic journal access to the university community. She also serves as a contributor to Magazines for Libraries and Reference Reviews.

Sparks, JoAnne
Director
Memorial Sloan Kettering Cancer Institute Library

JoAnne came to Memorial Sloan-Kettering (MSK) in the fall of 2003 to transform a traditional special library to a modern, mostly electronic library. As Director of Library Services, she is working to expand the definition of what "library" means to her users, experimenting with both physical spaces and virtual services, and redefining the operational model of how to deliver these services. She has spent most of her career in academic libraries with a brief stint at Bristol-Myers Squibb where she was the Director of Content Integration and Access. Over the course of her 25-year career in librarianship, JoAnne has held positions at Drexel, Hahnemann, Thomas Jefferson and Rush Universities. She received her degree in Library Science from Case Western Reserve University. A reference librarian at heart, she is interested in knowledge management and organizational dynamics as these areas apply to information seeking behavior. The MSK Library is actively experimenting with Clinical Medical Librarians and Informationist roles for various segments within the MSK user community. The staff is also embarking on a virtual team experiment, redefining how they work together beyond a physical library space, with satellite locations, telecommuting and compressed workweeks.

2007 Charleston Conference – Speaker Biographies

Speer, Julie Griffin

Head, Scholarly Communication & Digital Services

Georgia Institute of Technology

Julie Speer is Head of Scholarly Communication & Digital Services at Georgia Institute of Technology's Library & Information Center. She manages the library's institutional repository and e-publishing services, as well as outreach initiatives on scholarly communication.

Spires, Todd

Collection Development Librarian

Bradley University

Todd Spires has been working in collection development, acquisitions and serials librarianship since 1988. After working for many years in the South at Arkansas State University, Southeastern Louisiana University and Rhodes College, he has recently returned to the midwest to coordinate collection development and acquisitions functions at Bradley University in Peoria. He has been there for three years. In between tours of duty in the South and the Midwest he traveled both as an Area Representative for Coutts Library Services. This is his first time to be a presenter at the Charleston Conference although he has been attending regularly since 1989.

Stackel, Martha

Head, Cataloging Department

Addlestone Library, College of Charleston

Martha Stackel is the Head of the Catalog Department at the College of Charleston Library. She has a B.A. in Asian Studies and Art History from Wittenberg University in Springfield, Ohio and a M.Ln. from Emory University. Martha began her library career at Penn State University, took a detour into the public library sphere, and has been at the College of Charleston since 1990.

Stielow, Fred

Dean of Libraries & Educational Materials

American Military University

Fred Stielow is Dean of Libraries & Educational Materials at the fully online American Military University. In addition to professorial appointments at the University of Maryland and Catholic University, Dr. Stielow previously served as the director of the Amistad Research Center at Tulane University and the Reuther Labor Library at Wayne State University. With automation experience dating to Vietnam-era military, he has also consulted on numerous automation initiatives, contributed to over 100 Web sites, and chaired ALA's Web Advisory Committee. Stielow has written or edited over 100 scholarly articles and 10 books, including Creating Virtual Libraries and Building Digital Archives. His awards include a Fulbright Scholarship in Italy, the Jamison Fellowship of the Library of Congress, and a Cybrarian of the Year Award from MCI for work while head of the Mid-Hudson Public Library System.

Stranack, Kevin

Public Knowledge Project Librarian

Simon Fraser University

Kevin Stranack is a librarian with the Public Knowledge Project at the Simon Fraser University Library. He works with editors, publishers, and librarians from around the world in the use of open source software for open access publishing, and is the author of "OJS in an Hour", "OCS in an Hour", "Getting Found, Staying Found", and other documents published by the Project. Kevin is a frequent presenter at library and information technology conferences, including the Canadian Library Association, the British Columbia Library Association, Access, BCNet, NetSpeed, and others. Kevin works from his home in Noelville, Ontario, a small farming village north of Toronto, with his partner (also a librarian), two boys, two cats, and black lab puppy.

2007 Charleston Conference – Speaker Biographies

Strauch, Bruce
Professor, School of Business
The Citadel

Summerfield, Mary
Director, Business Development
University of Chicago Press

Mary Summerfield directs development of publishing partnerships and publications, as well as strategic planning, in the Chicago Journals Division. For six years, she held a similar role for the Press as a whole and spearheaded the launch of the Chicago Digital Distribution Center and the BiblioVault repository for digital book files. For eight years, she worked with Columbia University in issues related to scholarly communications, including managing the Columbia Online Books Project. Previously, Mary worked in business development in multinational electronic media, including CBS, Inc. Prior to earning an MBA at Columbia, she was a business economist. She also earned a BA in economics from Wellesley College.

Sung, Jan S.
Assistant Professor
Eastern Illinois University

Jan Sung is Assistant Professor at Eastern Illinois University Library. She assists the Head of Circulation Services, and serves as a university contact person for copyright issues. After the sixteen years of post-secondary education, she, finally, shed her glorious title, "a professional student," by landing in the current position, which she dearly enjoys. She earned her MSLIS from University of Illinois, and Ph. D. in Educational Psychology from the University of Texas at Austin, where she acquired her statistical analytical skills.

Sung, Nackil
Head, Library Technology Services
Eastern Illinois University

Nackil Sung oversees the department of Library Technology Services (LTS) in Eastern Illinois University Library. He is in charge of all aspects of technology in the library. He has developed a number of applications over the years. The examples are electronic reserves system, automatic document delivery system, print charging system, web-based reporting system, stacks management system, etc. He has MLIS from the University of Texas at Austin.

Swords, David
Vice President of Sales and Marketing
Blackwell Book Services

Sypolt, Terrie
Reference Librarian
University of Central Florida

Works as a Reference Librarian at the University of Central Florida in Orlando. Provides reference service. Selects library materials for the College of Education. Serves on the College of Education Resources Committee and the Libraries Electronic Resources Working Group. Provides Library

2007 Charleston Conference – Speaker Biographies

Instruction for faculty, graduates/undergraduates in Education, including an online tutorial. Maintains web pages that support College research efforts. Currently working toward Research status for the Libraries' Education collection.

Tananbaum, Greg Consultant

Greg Tananbaum is a consultant focusing on activities at the intersection of technology, content, and academia. His client base includes publishers (for-profit and NFP), libraries, high tech companies, information providers, and universities. Representative activities include development of a Web 2.0 strategy for a high-impact publisher, review of a strategic master plan for an ARL-member library, creation of a business development plan for a high-tech startup seeking to enter the academic space, and development of a journal acquisitions strategy for a major non-profit publisher. Greg previously served as the President of The Berkeley Electronic Press and Director of Product Marketing for EndNote. He holds a Master's Degree from the London School of Economics and a B.A. from Yale.

Tchangalova, Nedelina Reference Librarian Engineering & Physical Sciences Library University of Maryland

Nedelina Tchangalova completed her MS degree in Chemical Engineering in Bulgaria. Rather than building machines as she was trained, she worked as a curator and solo librarian in a Polytechnic museum. Upon her arrival to the United States in 1999, she received a MLS from the University of Maryland and began her career as a reference librarian at the Engineering & Physical Sciences Library. She was selected for the 2007 ALA Emerging leaders program and was an active ALA member. She is a supporter of Henry David Thoreau's vision that "Books are the treasured wealth of the world and the fit inheritance of generations and nations." Her recent research focuses on maintaining print collections in a digital era, information seeking behavior of women engineers, and scientists with disabilities.

Tempest, David Associate Director, Scientometrics & KM Research & Academic Relations Elsevier

David Tempest is Associate Director of Research & Academic Relations at Elsevier, specialising in Scientometrics (the study of science, economics and bibliometrics) and knowledge management. He has a degree in pharmacology from the University of Sunderland in the UK and is currently studying for an MBA. He has previously worked for Elsevier in both editorial and marketing positions.

David is a frequent presenter at various events around the world. His main subject is speaking about bibliometric analysis on journals and he has given many presentations on the impact factor, including its use, abuse and misconceptions. In 2005 he published an article examining the effect of title changes on the impact factor in the journal Learned Publishing.

He often speaks on publishing matters in general – the publishing industry, the development of journals and more subject related information.

Thomas, Wm. Joseph Collection Development Librarian East Carolina University

At ECU for nearly five years, Joseph has worked in Reference and in Collection Development. Liaison to English, Ethnic Studies, and Women's Studies, he carries out his own research in 19th C. Cherokee printing.

2007 Charleston Conference – Speaker Biographies

Tonkery, Dan

Vice President Business Development EBSCO Information Services

Born on a Mountain Top in West Virginia, still working in libraries and serials related industries for over 37 years. Helped develop some of the early online services at NLM, started a CD-ROM production company, and served as company President of three library services companies including Readmore, Faxon, and Information Quest. Still working to find faster, cheaper, more comprehensive solutions for libraries facing the shift to digital libraries.

Trainor, Cindi

Coordinator, Research & Instructional Services Division Eastern Kentucky University Libraries

Cindi Trainor is the Coordinator of Research and Instructional Services for the Libraries at Eastern Kentucky University, which means that she is ultimately responsible for much of the library's public service activities. In her former library life, Cindi managed information technology departments of varying sizes at libraries of varying sizes, and while she misses the daily spark of I.T. work, she still manages to immerse herself in technology and loves having a place at the library administration table. In her spare time, Cindi loves to read science fiction, listen to U2 and take thousands of bad photographs. Luckily, she also takes a few good ones.

Trevvett, Melissa

Vice President and Director of Programs and Services Center for Research Libraries

Since 2001, I have been responsible for the administration of programs and services at CRL that pertain to collections and access, including implementing digital delivery services and cooperative access archives for print serials. Prior experience in academic libraries has been at the University of Chicago, DePaul University, and Loyola University Chicago. I have been active in ALA and currently serve on the Budget and Finance Committee of ACRL. I look forward to the Charleston Conference -- my first one-- and the opportunity it provides to share experiences and ideas.

Turtle, Beth

Science Librarian Kansas State University Libraries

Beth Turtle has officially been a Science Librarian at K-State Libraries for 10 years. However, other duties/interests taking up more time include being the libraries' representative to 3 consortia, acting as chair of the electronic resources work group, and initiating a scholarly communications program. Prior to K-State, she was librarian at DPRA, Inc., a national environmental consulting firm.

Van Rennes, Robert

Acquisitions Librarian University of Iowa

Rob Van Rennes has been an acquisitions librarian at The University of Iowa Libraries since May 2007. Prior to his current appointment he worked as a paraprofessional in the interlibrary loan, government publications, and acquisitions departments. He holds a BA in History and German from the University of Northern Iowa and a MA in Library and Information Science from the University of Iowa. In his leisure time he enjoys the outdoors, biking and travel.

Van Zandt, Pat

Director, Research, Instruction & Outreach Services College of William & Mary

Pat Van Zandt is Director of Research, Instruction and Outreach Services at Swem Library of the College of William and Mary. Prior to that, she served as Director of Collections and Staff Development at Swem, and prior to that as Science Librarian. She has over 30 years of experience in libraries, including positions at the University of Illinois and the University of North Carolina at Greensboro. She also is involved in choosing electronic resources for VIVA, the Virtual Library of Virginia. One of her favorite jobs at William and Mary is serving as editor of The Throne, a unique and highly popular publication found only in the restrooms of Swem Library.

2007 Charleston Conference – Speaker Biographies

Vesper, Virginia

Coordinator of Collection Management

Walker Library, Middle Tennessee State Univ.

Virginia Vesper has twenty-five years of experience in libraries including positions in Acquisitions, Collection Development, Collection Assessment, Reference and Bibliographic Instruction. Since 2001, she has been the Coordinator of Collection Management at James E. Walker Library, Middle Tennessee State University.

Via, Barbara

Assistant Director, Science and Dewey Graduate Library and Circulation Services

University at Albany

Have worked at the U at Albany for 28 years. Originally a reference librarian and bibliographer, became an administrator in 2000. Currently responsible for the Dewey Graduate Library and the Science Library and Circulation Services. Have researched and published articles on journals in the LIS field. Taught Reference for several semesters in the Department of Information Studies (aka Library School) at the University. Reference work is my true passion!

Walker, Jenny

Executive Vice President of Marketing

Credo Reference

Jenny is executive vice-president marketing for Credo Reference (formerly Xrefer) and is based in London, UK. Prior to joining Credo Reference in 2006, Jenny was corporate vice-president marketing for Ex Libris. Jenny has a particular interest in standards in the library and information marketplace and has been actively involved in the development and deployment of standards such as the OpenURL and metasearch standards.

Waller, Dawn

Associate Head of Acquisitions

University of Virginia Library

Walmsley, Mike

Director Sales, Central US

YBP Library Services

Mike has been with YBP Library Services since 2004, and has worked with academic libraries for over 7 years. In prior "lives," he was a college admissions counselor and he spent two years in city government as an Executive Aide to the Mayor. He holds a B.A. degree from Wheaton College (MA) and an M.S. Ed from the University of Miami (FL). Since his first child was born in May (daughter Gabrielle), Mike hasn't had much time for his two favorite pursuits, basketball and cycling, but he hopes to regain his old form again. Although he misses these activities, going for walks with his daughter and reading to her have become his new favorite pastimes.

Ward, Caryl

Head of Acquisitions

Binghamton University (SUNY)

Caryl Ward has been the Head of Acquisitions at Binghamton University (SUNY) since 2002. Prior to that she worked in Serials, Copy Cataloging and ILL at Binghamton.

2007 Charleston Conference – Speaker Biographies

Warnock, Christopher
CEO and CTO
ebrary

Prior to co-founding ebrary®, Mr. Warnock consulted at Stanford University, where he helped develop a method in which University Presses could implement an electronic workflow solution for the electronic distribution of publications. He also provided feasibility research for Octavo Corporation, which publishes and preserves rare books and manuscripts using advanced digital tools and formats. From 1991-1996, he worked at Adobe Systems as a systems engineer, project manager, and product marketing manager for Adobe Acrobat. Mr. Warnock holds a B.S. in Philosophy from the University of Utah.

Wathen, Adam
Acquisitions Librarian
Kansas State Libraries

Adam Wathen is the Acquisitions Librarian at K-State Libraries in Manhattan, KS. He has also held positions as Director of Library Services at Tabor College, Reference and Government Publications Librarian at Creighton University, and Reference Librarian at Montana State University - Bozeman. He has earned an MLS from Emporia State University, an MA in English from Emporia State, and a BA in Biblical Religious Studies and Philosophy from Tabor College. Adam is interested in organization design, integration of business philosophies into the academic environment, and developing new workflows and service models by taking advantage of new technologies and Web 2.0 concepts. When not library-ing (or making verbs out of nouns), Adam enjoys watching movies with his wife and two children

Watkinson, Anthony
Senior Lecturer, Centre for Publishing
University College London

I hold two salaried jobs, one at University College London and one at Wiley-Blackwell where I am the global dentistry publisher. I am also director of education and training at the International Association of STM Publishers. I am honored to be one of the directors of this conference. Most of my working life has been in scholarly publishing. I have held senior positions at Academic Press, Oxford University Press and Thomson (Chapman & Hall). I started in academic life as an ecclesiastical historian and then became a scholarly librarian (New College Oxford). When I have spare time I go to movies, opera and theater and exercise my four labrador dogs.

Weigle, Friedemann
Managing Partner and Director of Information Systems
Harrassowitz

Friedemann Weigel has served as the Managing Partner and Director of Information Systems for Harrassowitz since 1986. Prior to his current position, Friedemann worked as a Systems Consultant for EDV Studio Ploenzke. Additional professional activities include serving as EDItEUR (The International Group for Electronic Commerce in the Book and Serials Sector) Chairman in 2000, as well as on the EDItEUR Steering Committee and Message Development Group. Friedemann is also a member of ICEDIS (International Committee on EDI for Serials) and serves as the International Supply Chain Specialists Meeting Chair. He is a graduate of the Universitaet Hamburg.

Werking, Richard Hume
Library Director & Professor of History
U.S. Naval Academy

Richard Hume Werking, a native of Charleston, is library director and professor of history at the US Naval Academy in Annapolis. He has also held library positions at Lawrence University in Wisconsin, the University of Mississippi, and Trinity University in Texas. He is a member of, and helped establish, the Teaching Committee of the Society for Historians of American Foreign Relations. His professional interests center on facilitating what we have traditionally called collection development and (among other terms) user education. In 1978 he was among the speakers at Cerise Oberman's first bibliographic instruction conference at the College of Charleston.

2007 Charleston Conference – Speaker Biographies

White, Meg

Executive Director of Technology Services Rittenhouse Book Distributors

Meg White is a 18-year veteran of the health sciences publishing industry. Her background includes various sales, marketing, and product development positions at Rittenhouse Book Distributors, Mosby, Williams & Wilkins, and Wolters Kluwer Health/Lippincott Williams & Wilkins. Meg is currently Director of Technology Services at Rittenhouse, focused on strategic initiatives and leveraging her experience in the areas of technology, marketing, product development, and editorial. She headed the development of the company's electronic library initiative, the R2 Digital Library, and continues to serve as product manager for the platform. Meg holds a B.A. in Speech Communication and Theater Arts from Wake Forest University. GO DEACS!

Whitehair, David

WorldCat Selection Product Manager OCLC

David Whitehair has been with OCLC for nearly 20 years. He is the WorldCat Selection product manager and also works with the Connexion cataloging team. David's library career started somewhat by accident when he applied for a job as a freshman at the Ohio State University and was placed in the Acquisitions Department of the library. What an impact a student assistant position can make on your career path!

Wiegand, Sue

Periodicals Librarian Saint Mary's College

Sue Wiegand is the Periodicals Librarian at Saint Mary's College, Notre Dame, IN, where she enjoys being in charge of periodicals in all formats, including acquiring them, arranging access, cataloging, teaching about finding them, and helping students make sense of them. Previously, she was Acquisitions/Periodicals Librarian at Valparaiso University. She has a B.S. in Biology from Purdue University, and has done graduate work in both Biology and English; she obtained her MLS from Indiana University. Previous presentations include NASIG and the Midwest Scholarship of Teaching and Learning (SoTL) Conference. Sue has published in Against the Grain, Library Collections, Acquisitions and Technical Services, LOEX News, and The Serials Librarian, and is a reviewer for Choice.

Wilder, Stanley

Associate Dean, River Campus Libraries University of Rochester

Wiley, Deborah E.

Senior Vice President, Corporate Communications John Wiley & Sons

Deborah was the first member of the sixth generation and the first female family member to join the business when she started at Wiley in 1968. During her tenure, Deborah has been instrumental in defining Wiley's public leadership—in the publishing industry, in the scientific community, in local schools, and in our neighborhoods. Chairman of the National Book Foundation as well as the Association of American Publishers' International Copyright Protection Committee, Deborah is an advocate for the publishing industry, and has worked extensively on copyright and piracy issues. Under her direction, the Wiley Foundation was established to bestow an annual Wiley Prize in Biomedical Sciences, first awarded in 2002, to recognize innovative research in the biomedical fields. She has led Wiley's corporate giving programs for 20 years, and started Wiley's successful tutoring and mentoring program in the Hoboken public schools in 2003.

2007 Charleston Conference – Speaker Biographies

Wiley, Lynn
Head of Acquisitions
University of Illinois at Urbana-Champaign

Wilson, Kit
Director, Lois Hole Campus Alberta Digital Library
The Alberta Library

After working for many years in the area of collection management at the University of Alberta Library, Kit Wilson took on the challenge of directing the Lois Hole Campus Alberta Digital Library. This initiative, funded by the Government of Alberta, is building a shared collection of licensed resources and digitized content for learners and faculty at 35 post secondary institutions across the province of Alberta.

Winthrop, Claire Ginn
Director, Library Services
Ingenta, a division of Publishing Technology

Claire joined PCG in 1998 as a content sales manager. In 2000, she became the Director of Content Sales working with publishers to develop sales strategies with libraries, consortia, corporations and government agencies in North America and Europe. In May of this year, she became the Director of Library Services at Ingenta, PCG's parent company, where she is responsible for library sales, customer support and the document delivery business.

Wittenbach, Stefanie
Assistant Dean for Collections
University of Texas at San Antonio

Stefanie Wittenbach is currently Assistant Dean for Collections at the University of Texas at San Antonio Library, and has been there two years. Previously, she served as Interim Assistant University Librarian for Technical Services and Budget Analysis at the University of California, Riverside. She has also taught Cataloging and Collection Development courses for San Jose State University's School of Library and Information Science distance education program in Fullerton, California. Her MLS is from the University of Texas at Austin.

Wolfish, Ruth
Client Services Manager
IEEE Publishing and Information

Ruth Wolfish, IEEE Client Services Manager, provides training for IEEE online products, distributes informational materials to drive usage, answers all usage questions, and performs both on-site and internet conference training. She works with all of IEEE's academic, government and corporate accounts located in the United States & Canada, East of the Mississippi River.

Ms. Wolfish came to IEEE in 2001 from Lucent Technologies. Her 18-year career with Lucent and its predecessor companies included roles as Bell Labs Reference Librarian, management trainer and administrator of education, information specialist for business systems, and electronic content coordinator for Lucent's Digital Library. She was President of the NJ SLA chapter in 2006 and currently is serving on the SLA Professional Development Committee.

2007 Charleston Conference – Speaker Biographies

Wood, Sara
VP & Chief Data Officer
Swivel

Sara Wood is the Chief Data Officer for Swivel. Sara has spent the better part of the last decade working with some of the world's most important data: the World Health Organization, Harvard School of Public Health, the UN and UNDP. Previous to that she worked for a number of technology companies and research organizations, including web startups such as Salon.com, where she helped to solve emerging issues of content and data management on the web.

Woodward, Hazel
University Librarian
Cranfield University

Hazel has been University Librarian and Director of the University Press at Cranfield University since 1999. Prior to that she was at Loughborough University as Head of Electronic Information Services. Hazel's research interests include electronic publishing and scholarly communication (the subject of her PhD thesis) and she has published many papers in the professional literature on digital library issues. She is very active professionally being currently the Chair of the UK JISC E-Books Working Group, a member of the JISC Journal Working Group (which oversees NESLi2 e-journal initiative) and a member of COUNTER Executive Committee as well as contributing to various UK Serials Group and ICOLC committees.

Wright, Michael
Head, Acquisitions & Rapid Cataloging
University of Iowa

Yontz, Elaine
Professor
Valdosta State University MLIS Program

Younce, Leigh Medford
Library Fellow
Joyner Library, East Carolina University

I completed my MLS degree in December 2005 and am currently working as the Library Fellow at Joyner Library. The fellowship offers a great opportunity for me to experience working in a variety of library departments and fields. I hope to leave this fellowship with a level experience that will prepare me for a career a professional Librarian.

Zdravkovska, Nevenka
Head, Engineering and Physical Sciences Library (EPSL)
University of Maryland, College Park

Nevenka Zdravkovska has been the Head of the Engineering and Physical Sciences Library (EPSL), University of Maryland, College Park since October 2006. From 1998 to 2006 she was a science reference librarian at Georgetown University, Blommer Science Library. Her collections responsibilities have been mainly for science disciplines (physics, mathematics, and computer science), but for several years she was also the selector for Slavic languages and literature, and the Center for Eurasian, Russian and East European Studies (CERES) at Georgetown University. She received her BS in engineering physics from Cyril and Methodius University in Skopje, Macedonia, and her MLS from Texas Woman's University.

2007 Charleston Conference – Speaker Biographies

Zeoli, Michael

Director of Sales, Canada

YBP Library Services

Michael has spent 9 years as a miner at YBP Library Services, first as a bibliographer and then writing approval plans for academic libraries and cooperative collection development groups in various parts of North America. The YBP career was interrupted by a two-year stint of hard labor at ebrary, a successful Silicon Valley ebook platform and e-content provider. Michael has become a true believer in the benefits of a highly competitive marketplace and the fundamental importance of partnering with libraries.

Zsulya, Carol

Head College Management

Cleveland State University Library